IN THE BEE TO-DAY

WEATHER.

U. S. Department of Agriculture,
Weather Bureau,
Toledo, O., 8 a. m., Feb. 10, 1892.

The local forecast for to-day and Thursday is warmer, with rain or snow to-night and to-morrow.

The "high" or clear conditions reported yesterday in the west has taken unusual impetus eastward and is now disappearing off the Atlantic coast. This movement permitted the acceleration of the "low," or storm center in Montana which has traveled southeastward 1,200 miles in the past 24 hours—nearly three times as fast as the average storm. The result is that this morning the storm center is in Iowa, increasing in intensity as it progresses, and the rain area reaches eastward as far as Chicago.

Rain or snow and warmer weather may therefore be expected here to-night and to-morrow.

The rise in temperature has been very rapid in the region of the storm center, and the contrasts are rather startling. In Dakota, Nebraska and Wisconsin, where below zero temperature prevailed yesterday, 30 to 35 degrees above are reported this morning. No zero temperatures are reported to-day. The highest was 56 degrees, at Galveston. The highest yesterday in Toledo was 27; the lowest this morning was 20. Snowfall yesterday amounted to a trace.

WILL JIM GO OUT?

Belief That Blaine Will Leave the Cabinet,

And Retire Entirely From Public Life.

Continued Ill Health is Given as the Reason

Why the Secretary Will Make This Move.

Politicians Think the Man is Sincere and That He is Beginning to Realize That His Days of Toil Are Numbered.

New York, Feb. 10.—A Washington special correspondent wires his paper that Secretary Blaine's resignation from the cabinet will, after a reasonable interval, follow his letter of withdrawal as a presidential possibility.

For this statement the correspondent says he has authority second only to that of Secretary Blaine himself. The dispatch continued:

"Mr. Blaine has reached a definite determination to resign his commission as secretary of state. Only the date at which this action shall be taken remains undetermined.

"Mr. Blaine, if he follows his personal inclination, would tender the president his resignation at once, but he realizes that such an act, following immediately upon his letter to Chairman Clarkson, would be widely misinterpreted, and would be construed by the opponents of the republican party either as an act of pique or as indicating serious differences between the president and his premier.

"Therefore Mr. Blaine will postpone his resignation from the cabinet until time enough shall have elapsed to separate in the public mind that act from his announcement that his name would not go before the republican national convention for the presidential nomination.

"The reason which Secretary Blaine will give to the president for retiring from the cabinet will be that of physical inability to continue to perform the arduous and exacting duties of his present office.

"This is, in fact, the true reason for Mr. Blaine's determination to withdraw entirely from official life. Other motives may, and doubtless will, be assigned by his critics for his action, but it will really be based upon his precarious health.

"It has been the hope of Mr. Blaine for several months to spend some of the present winter in a warmer climate. When he left Bar Harbor last fall it was with the intention of going from Washington either to the extreme southern part of Texas or to Mexico to spend the winter.

"The Chilean imbroglio dragged its length along till a trip of so great extent became impracticable. Since the Chilean affair has assumed less importance it is stated that Mr. Blaine has expressed a desire to go as soon as possible to the Bermudas and remain till the late spring or early summer months have settled the fickle weather of this lattitude. Since that time Mr. Blaine has also expressed a desire to visit Cuba and it is thought that that island will be his most probable destination after he has resigned from the cabinet.

"The determination of Mr. Blaine to retire from the cabinet, which is here publicly announced for the first time, was intimated yesterday by Gen. Felix Agnus, of Baltimore, who said in an interview:

"'I should not be surprised to see Mr. Blaine retire even from the cabinet, of which he has been such an eminent member.'

"Gen. Agnus' words may be given all the significance to utterances of an intimate personal friend of Secretary Blaine. To only a few of these friends is Mr. Blaine's determination known.

"It is, of course, too early to speculate as to who may succeed Mr. Blaine as secretary of state. The name of ex-Senator Edmunds, of Vermont, naturally suggests itself, because of his well known intimacy with the president and his great experience in public affairs, but it will be remembered that Mr. Edmunds assigned his own precarious health as his reason for resigning from the senate. New York already has a member of the cabinet, which seem to debar from consideration the name of ex-Senator Evarts, who was secretary of state under President Hayes.

"It is thought more probable that the president would look to the west for a successor to Secretary Blaine, and it is suggested that he might find it good politics to select a man from Illinois. In this connection the name of Robert T. Lincoln, who was secretary of war under President Arthur, and who is now United States minister at the court of St. James, might be recalled and promoted to the head of the state department.

"The most important subject after the reciprocity now before that department is the Bering sea question, with which Minister Lincoln's duties during the past three years have made him thoroughly familiar."

CANADA'S GREAT SCANDAL.

The Whole Country to be Shaken Up.

The Land of Boodlers' Delight is Proving to Have Been Corrupt From Top to Bottom.

Montreal, Feb. 10.—It is announced that the Hon. Thomas McGreevy has documents in his possession proving that Sir John McDonald knew of the frauds perpetrated in the Quebec harbor works, whereby several ministers received money ostensibly for election purposes, whereupon Tartes' paper, Le Canadien, demands an inquiry into recent charges preferred against Sir Adolph Caron, and says:

"There is no doubt that all the conservative members who have sat in parliament for the last 20 years have received money from McGreevy for elections. If Mr. McGreevy proves that Sir John McDonald was cognizant of frauds perpetrated to obtain money, it will be the greatest scandal that ever saw the light of day.

"They have been organized with system by the actual leader of a great party."

Le Canadien also states with reference to the request of Montreal brewers that the duty recently imposed be taken off of malt, that brewers have been asked to subscribe $20,000 to a fund for the provincial elections, in complying with which the duty will be taken off. It is said the brewers will accept.

THE ALCYRON CASE.

New York, Feb. 10.—The stallion Alcyron and his owner, Frank L. Noble, have been finally expelled from membership in the National Trotting association.

THE C., B. & Q.

An Important Circular Issued to the Stockholders.

Boston, Feb. 10.—The circular of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad company to stockholders was issued to-day. It offers stockholders the right to take the new convertible bonds at par up to 10 per cent. of their holdings.

It says the proceeds will be used to pay for about $4,000,000 new equipment, new shops in Nebraska, and other additions and improvements. The bonds are dated January 1, 1892, from which date they will begin to draw interest, and will mature on September 1, 1903, and will be convertible at their face value in stock at par at any time after September, 1892, except when the books are closed.

ASBURY PARK.

It Will be Purchased from the Founder, Mr. Bradley.

Asbury Park, N. J., Feb. 10.—The citizens of this place met in mass meeting last night to consider the advisability of purchasing the lake and ocean front properties of founder James A. Bradley.

Mr. Bradley recently offered to sell this property for $150,000, which is considered to be not one quarter of its value. The meeting last night after an hour's discussion, resolved to accept the generous offer and a committee was appointed to draw up a bill authorizing the town to purchase the property and endeavor to have it made a law by the legislature.

ACCIDENT AT THE QUARRIES.

Berea, O., Feb. 10.—A terrible accident occurred at the quarries of the Cleveland Stone company, at this place yesterday afternoon. A number of Polish laborers were stripping stone, when a huge mass of frozen earth suddenly fell, burying several of the unfortunate men beneath it. One man was taken out dead, and another died soon after being rescued. A third man received serious injuries. The victims all live in Berea.

TO HAVE A COADJUTOR.

Important Step in Catholic Circles.

The Force of the Argument Caused Archbishop Kenrick to Burst Into Tears.

St. Louis, Feb. 10.—It can be definitely stated that Archbishop Peter Richard Kenrick will soon have a coadjutor.

A committee of priests called at the archepiscopal residence on Monday night and had a long conference with the archbishop.

All the bearings and issues involved in the important step were overhauled at length, and when the venerable archbishop finally saw the force of the arguments he burst into tears and expressed a complete willingness to accede to their wishes.

In giving his consent to the coadjutor Archbishop Kenrick made the proviso that the clergy were to do their own selecting and that no synod was to be assembled.

In accordance with the usual procedure in such cases the names of three priests will be sent to Rome, from which the pope will make a selection.

It is believed the choice will lay between Bishop Hennesey of Wichita, Kas.; Vicar General Cunningham, of Leavenworth, and Vicar General Brady, of St. Louis.

DECLARED AGAINST TRUSTS

National Association of Retail Dealers.

It Adopts Strong Resolutions and Wants Congress to Put Twine on the Free List.

St. Louis, Feb. 10.—The National Association of Retail Implement Dealers closed their annual convention yesterday. Among the resolutions adopted were the following:

That congress be memorialized to legislate against all trusts and combinations formed for the control of trade; and that congress be asked to abolish the tariff on twine.

The resolution in relation to the National Cordage company was particularly severe. It declares that company to be the most gigantic monopoly in America, controlling the output of every twine and cordage factory in the country, and dictating prices to the retail dealers.

A. Keller, of Illinois, was re-elected president; B. M. McNeeley, of Missouri, re-elected secretary, after which the convention adjourned sine die.

POLITICS IN LOUISIANA.

Leonard May Make a Strong Run.

New Orleans, Feb. 10.—Leonard's letter of acceptance as the republican nominee for governor attracts much attention, especially among business men.

It is the first time that all the democratic papers have published such an arraignment of the methods of their party. Both Foster and McEnery men say that they would sooner see Leonard governor than that the opposition should succeed.

They say Leonard is a southern man, bold and fearless and cannot be controlled by political rings. The published correspondence between the two factions of the democratic party shows them wider apart than ever.

Ex-Gov. Wickliff, the candidate for lieutenant-governor on the McEnery ticket, says the fight will now be between McEnery and Leonard.

OUT FOR THE MONEY IN IT.

Fostoria, O., Feb. 10.—The secretary of Fostoria's board of trade has received letters from the Standard Hub and Block company, of Philadelphia, and a stove manufactory, of Washington C. H., relative to the removal of their plants to this city, everything being arranged satisfactorily.

MAJOR OVERMAN'S DEFENSE

He Paid Out Money Without Authority.

The Defendant Placed on the Stand—Why He Did Not Keep His Accounts Square.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 10.—The Overman court martial convened late yesterday, it being 1 o'clock before the record of Monday's proceedings had been read.

Contrary to expectation, the defense opened by putting Major Overman on the witness stand. The accused officer looked more nervous than ever, and sat in the chair in an attitude of discomfort and embarrassment. Col. Gardiner first elicited from him his record as an army officer.

Briefly stated, Major Overman's explanation for not turning over certain sums of money to the government as soon as they were received was that he had credited them to his petty cash account, and had paid them out in liquidation of small bills for which no appropriation had been authorized.

REBUILDING HIS CABINET

Harrison to Gather a New Official Family.

Wanamaker is to Step Down and Out.

Chairman Clarkson Believed to be Slated for the Postmaster Generalship—Some Fine Working.

New York, Feb. 10.—A special to the Times from Philadelphia says there is a rumor of impending cabinet change in quiet circulation.

It is that Postmaster General Wanamaker is to resign within a few days and is to be sent to Paris to succeed Minister Whitelaw Reid, who has long desired to return to the United States.

Its important sequel is that Gen. James S. Clarkson is to be appointed postmaster general.

These moves on the party checkerboard are said to have been arranged on the occasion of Mr. Wanamaker's visit to Mr. Clarkson at the Plaza hotel in New York last Sunday.

An effort to verify these rumors was made without success. Gen. Clarkson was unable to see a reporter. He expects to go to Ashville, N. C., to-day, to be treated for rheumatic aches and pains.

PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCES.

New York, Feb. 9.—The New York World this morning prints a page of telegrams from the different state capitals concerning the presidential preferences of state officers and members of the legislatures. In a general way it shows that the choice lies between Cleveland and Hill. Pennsylvania is for Cleveland, Tennessee for Hill, Utah for Cleveland, Illinois divided, Kentucky for Cleveland, North Carolina for Hill. Cleveland leads in Virginia. In Indiana the first choice is Gray and the second Cleveland.

HURON MINING STOCK.

Boston, Feb. 10.—The court refused to grant the preliminary injunction against the sale of the Huron Mining company's stock to-day, but ruled that the case must be heard on its merits. The sale was had at noon after a protest had been filed. The greater part of the stock, several thousand shares, was taken by J. C. Watson at 3.

KNOWS IT CAN'T TAKE PLACE

"Chawley" Mitchell Again Blowing His Horn.

He Always Picks Out a Time When He Knows That Sullivan Cannot Meet Him.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 10.—Frank P. Slavin and Charley Mitchell, who are in the city with their Vaudeville company, signed an agreement with Capt. Williams, of the Olympic club, of New Orleans, Monday evening, to meet any two men the club may produce in the prize ring during the mardi-gras festivities. Slavin will fight the first night and Mitchell the second. Mitchell says he is ready, and anxious to meet Sullivan.

OPERA HOUSE BURNED.

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 10.—The Capital City opera house, the principal theater of East Des Moines, caught fire at 11:15 o'clock last night and burned to the ground. A horrible catastrophe was averted, a large audience having just left the building. The loss is about $90,000; insurance $35,000.

SWUNG AROUND THE CIRCLE

President Montt Returns to Santiago.

He Was Everywhere Greeted with Much Enthusiasm—Indemnity for the Dead Americans.

Valparaiso, Feb. 10.—President Montt returned to Santiago yesterday from his tour through the southern provinces of the republic. His reception everywhere was of the most flattering character. He will leave the capital to-day for Valparaiso, where all the ministers have temporary offices during the heated term.

It is expected that the terms of indemnity will be decided during March with an order to put the same to congress at its session in April.

SIGNS OF UNREST.

Rio Janerio, Feb. 10.—Great discontent exists at Port Algero. The soldiers are taking away firearms from the citizens. The higher civil officials are abandoning their posts. Governor Martin is meeting with strong opposition.

POLITICS IN NEBRASKA.

The State is Now to be Michiganized.

Boyd Refused to Shake the Hand of the Man Who Had Stolen Office From the People.

Kansas City, Feb. 10.—Gov. Thayer, of Nebraska, who abdicated in favor of Gov. Boyd, at the request of the United States supreme court, passed through the city this morning. Upon the side of the car in which he was traveling was a flaring banner reading, in letters a foot high, "Gov. Thayer and party, en route to La Porte, Tex."

There was no "ex" before the word "governor." La Porte is a young but ambitious Texas town only 42 days old, and is being boomed by Mr. Thayer.

The ex-governor told a reporter about his meeting with Gov. Boyd.

"When Gov. Boyd entered my office," he said, "I approached him and extended my hand. He did not offer to take it, and I inquired of him, 'Am I to understand, sir, that you decline to shake hands with me?'

"He replied that I might so understand.

"'Well, sir,' I said, 'I want you to understand that it is a matter of entire indifference to me.'"

Mr. Thayer said that the plans being formed by Gov. Boyd and the democrats would, if carried out, be disastrous to the republicans.

The legislature, he said, would doubtless "Michiganize" the state, which would mean the loss by the republicans of some of the presidential electors.

Mr. Thayer did not state just how many electors the democrats would gain, but the republicans would lose a part of them, that was certain.

WILL FORCE THE FIGHT.

Parnellites To Be Active in the Present Parliament.

London, Feb. 10.—The Parnellites are preparing to pursue an aggressive and positive policy toward the government. This was determined upon in yesterday's meeting for the election of a chairman.

There will be no opposition to the local government bill, so far as it concedes rights similar to those enjoyed in Great Britain, but the tories are to be given to understand that the measure is not a sufficient answer to Irish demands, while the pardon of the dynamiters and other concessions are to be vigorously urged.

RUSSIAN TROUBLES.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 10.—The orders recently issued prohibiting the transportation of grain from one district to another have caused the grain merchants to fear that their stock are to be confiscated in the near future, and that in return they are to receive government scrip which may not pay them for the loss incurred.

BOILER EXPLOSION.

Philadelphia, Feb. 10.—The names of the killed and injured by the explosion of an engine on the Reading railroad near Nicetown is as follows:

Killed—Hugh Dougherty, engineer; George Reardon, fireman; Thomas D. Faust, William Cavanaugh and James Dean.

BRANDED AS A SPY.

An Important Arrest Made in Bavaria.

A Stranger Taken Into Custody for Obtaining Information on Army Affairs.

Berlin, Feb. 10.—A sensation was created in military circles here to-day by the receipt of a dispatch from Augsburg, Bavaria, announcing the arrest of a spy, said to be an officer in a foreign army.

The stranger, when taken into custody, was taken to the nearest watch-house and searched. He was then found to have been successful in stealing one of the new and most improved rifles of the German army. The lock and other important parts of the weapon were found in the clothes worn by the prisoner.

It is understood that the military authorities will deal in the most severe manner with the spy in order to show others of his class what they may expect should they venture into Germany.

The new laws against foreigners are now thought to be not stringent enough, and steps may be taken shortly to make them more severe.

PLEADED GUILTY OF FORGERY.

Mansfield, O., Feb. 10.—C. W. Adams, a young man living at Spring Mills, this county, passed a number of checks for small amounts on local merchants to which the name of William Bachelder, a stock dealer of Mifflin, Ashland county, was forged.

He was arrested and when arraigned in mayor's court pleaded guilty to forgery and uttering a forgery. In default of $1,000 bail he was imprisoned.

AND PEFFER IS SENATOR.

The Kind of People They Grow in Kansas.

Women and Men Turn Out to Meet Sullivan, Who Receives Them in His Undershirt.

Topeka, Kas., Feb. 10.—The admirers of John L. Sullivan, the champion slugger, made a great many demonstrations over him in his tour through Kansas yesterday. The enthusiastic citizens of Dodge City were at the train with brass band and a banner inscribed, "Welcome, Sullivan," in response to which John went to the car door attired in pantaloons and undershirt, made his bow and went back to his seat.

At Garden City five ladies were in the crowd that went into his car.

John greeted them with many expressions of joy. "Glad to see you, ladies," he said. "If Mrs. Sullivan wasn't with me I'd kiss you." Halstead had a crowd out, too. "Where's Sullivan?" they cried, and a trainman pointed out to them a prominent lawyer from a western county, and they gave him three cheers.

QUICK CONSUMPTION.

FOUR MEN GARROTED.

An Awful Scene in Xerxes This Morning.

The Condemned Anarchists Meet Death Bravely for the Part They Took in the Riots.

Madrid, Feb. 10.—The four condemned anarchists were garroted this morning at Xerxes, in the plaza in front of the prison.

A formidable force of troops was massed in the plaza and kept the crowd at a distance from the spot at which the execution took place.

The condemned accepted the ministrations of the clergy. The spectacle was a horrible one. As the screw of the garrote entered the spine their heads fell forward, the faces turning purple, and tongues protruding.

A cry of horror went up from many in the crowd. The condemned men were leaders in the attack upon and plundering of Xerxes on January 5 by a band of raiders, said to be anarchists, and belonging to an organization for arousing a rebellion in Spain.

There was no disorder, however, during the execution.

NOTES FROM FOSTORIA.

Fostoria, O., Feb. 10.—Peck & Turner of this city have leased 1,500 acres of land in Huron county for oil and gas purposes.

Washington Wade of this city, one of the pioneers of this county, died of typhoid pneumonia.

HE DEFIES THE LAW.

Bill Parris, Backed by a Mob of His Friends,

Is Marching on the Town of Eddyville, Ky., and is Threatening Trouble.

Eddyville, Ky., Feb. 10.—Bill Parris, a notorious negro tough, and a white woman, were arrested Monday night. Parris escaped and went to Princeton, returning yesterday with a negro mob which threatens the town authorities if they arrest him. A guard of 50 men is holding them back. Great excitement prevails, and there is a good chance for a fight and bloodshed.

The ordinance passed by the council to issue bonds to the amount of $120,000 to refund gas certificates of indebtedness, was approved and signed by Mayor Emmick last Friday, notwithstanding statements to the contrary, which have been made.

The ordinance fixing the price of illuminating gas at $1.10 per thousand was approved by the mayor on the same day.

CHICKEN THIEVES

Doing a Land Office Business in East Toledo.

M. L. Odell, of East Toledo, informed a Bee this morning that chicken thieves are doing a thriving business in that part of the city just now. He was relieved of eight chickens on Monday night, and the feathers are said to have been burned yesterday near the Barnes block.

Owners of fowls are on the lookout, and it would not be surprising if some of the thieves were punctured with shot while on their tours. Earl street and its vicinity seems to be the favorite spot at present for the depredations.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

From Wood, Ottawa and Sandusky Counties in Town.

This morning the following gentlemen—Messrs. Jacob A. Gabel, Fremont; F. H. Thompson, Perrysburg; Samuel Knight, Hammansburg; J. B. Wilson, Bowling Green; A. Serymyer, Genoa; Fred Hillman, Oak Harbor; John Detlef, Port Clinton; Jacob Stahl, Bradner, and Jas. E. Wickert, Fremont, met at the Jefferson to discuss the mode of improving Packer creek ditch, which drains water from Ottawa, Wood and Sandusky counties. A satisfactory agreement was reached.

HEAD WAITERS.

Change at the Burnett House To-day.

To-day Miss Della Snyder, who for more than five years has been the head waiter at the Burnett house, retired from her position, and was succeeded by Miss Anna Oakes, who recently came to the city from Cleveland.

Miss Snyder was one of the most efficient and accommodating officials about the hotel, and was constantly on the lookout to please the patrons of the house. Her many friends will wish her success in whatever duties she may assume.

Miss Oakes was formerly employed by Mr. Friedman in Detroit, and will undoubtedly give satisfaction. All will be satisfied if she measures up with her predecessor.

PLEA FOR MORE HELP

At the Patent Office from Mr. William Webster.

Said Wm. Webster, the patent attorney, to a Bee this morning: "We should have more help at our patent office. Our country, standing pre-eminent, as it does, in the workings of genius, requires more help at this office. The patentees have paid over and above all necessary expenses at the patent office, $4,400,317.67. The rates of patents granted increases wonderfully each year, as the following will show:

"From 1836 to 1871, 98,450 patents were granted; from 1871 to 1881, 236,000 were granted, and from 1881 to 1891, 443,000 were granted."

TOLEDO RATE INSPECTION.

Gains Resulting from the Work of the Bureau in January.

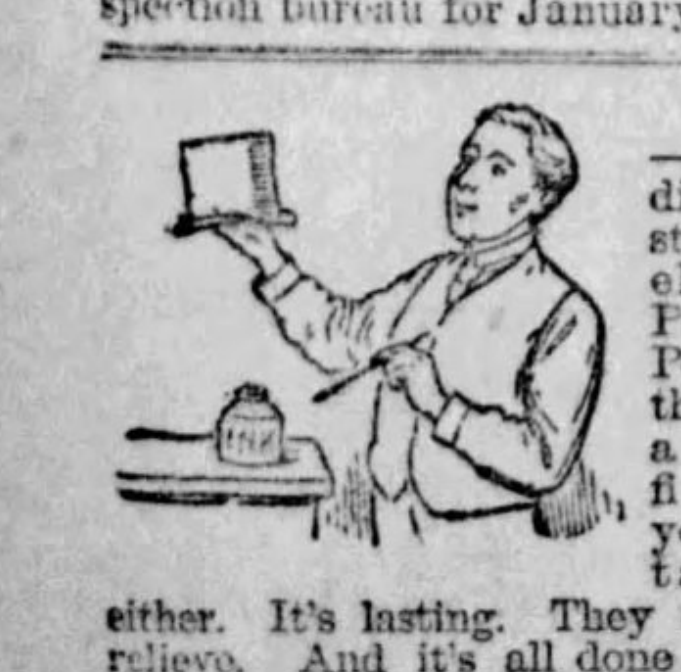
The report of the Toledo joint rate inspection bureau for January, which will be issued to-morrow, shows gains in revenue as follows:

Gain from weighing car load freight from the various local railroads, $7,791.28.

Gains from weighing platform freights, $835.35.

Gains from classification changes and rate inspections, $784.03.

This makes the total gains at Toledo for January, $9,410.66.



As good as new—that's the condition of liver, stomach and bowels, when Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets have done their work. It's a work that isn't finished when you've stopped taking them, either. It's lasting. They cure, as well as relieve. And it's all done so mildly and gently! There's none of the violence that went with the old-time pill. One tiny, sugar-coated Pellet's a gentle laxative—three to four act as a cathartic. Sick Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks and derangements of the stomach and bowels, are prevented, relieved and cured. As a Liver Pill, they're unequaled. They're purely vegetable, perfectly harmless—the smallest, cheapest, and easiest to take.

They're the cheapest pill you can buy, because they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned.

You only pay for the good you get. Can you ask more?

That's the peculiar plan all Dr. Pierce's medicines are sold on.

THE FRAGMENTS

Of Two Banquets Bestowed Where They Will Do the Most Good.

There will be feasting at the Adams Street mission to-day in consequence of the kind remembrances of the friends of the institution. The Knights of Honor gave the mission the remnants of Monday evening's banquet. The eatables left over from the banquet given by the Sanford L. Collins lodge, F. & A. M., last evening have also been worthily bestowed. The mission kindergarten, under the direction of the Church of Our Father, the industrial school and a needy family were the recipients. All these extend their heartiest thanks for the kind remembrances. Sixty-nine worthy persons will consequently enjoy a feast. Let the good work go on.

THE TOLEDO INSTITUTE

Of University Extension—The Next Course of Lectures.

In answer to inquiries the Bee reports the announcement as to the next course in the University Extension lectures. The second course of six lectures begins on Friday evening, February 26. The lecturer is Prof. Isaac N. Demmon, of Ann Arbor; his subject, "Masterpieces of English Literature.' Sale of tickets for the course will begin Monday, February 15, and they can be secured at the office in the High school building, or at Brown, Eager & Hull's. Course ticket, $1; single lecture, 25 cents. No formal application for membership is necessary, the course being open to all who purchase tickets.

THE BRECKENRIDGE FACTORY

Talking of Buying Somewhere Near the Woolson Company.

The announcement in the Bee yesterday that Breckenridge & Co., of Superior street, was talking of erecting a factory on Monroe street, is corroborated to-day.

"Yes, we have been talking of it," said Mr. Breckenridge to a Bee this morning, "but are not in a position to say anything or do anything just now. When Mr. Woolson bought out near the Wagon Works he asked us to take up an option he held and build a factory near his, but nothing definite has been done or will be done at present. The great increase in our business has limited the capacity of our present building, and I suppose it is merely a matter of time when we must get larger quarters.

"At present, however, it is well not to say much about our plans. You see we still have quite a lease of this building, and there are many things to be considered before we can think of moving."

TOLEDO FREIGHT COMMITTEE

The Toledo freight committee has notified shippers that in order to secure uniformity in correctly marking and billing freight, agents will require that all shipments less than carloads be marked with at least the initials of consignees, and the destinations must be stated in full. The marks, way bills and transfers must correspond, and the way-bills and transfers must, in all cases show the names of consignees in full.

Mr. J. M. Steinberg, secretary of the committee, stated to a Bee this morning that this step has been taken to put a stop to the careless habits shippers have drifted into step by step. Merely the initials of consignees on the billing are not sufficient to insure proper deliveries at proper destinations. It is hoped that shippers will be more careful in the future, that all concerned may be benefited by the prompt delivery of goods that will result.

AN ENJOYABLE EVENING

Spent at the Washington Street Congregational Church.

An enjoyable entertainment was given at the Washington Street Congregational church last evening, and the following program was rendered: Invocation, Rev. O. D. Fisher; music, The Orphean club; duet, Misses Ogden and Demuth; violin solo, May Barton Colburn; recitation, Miss Amelia Zoerb; solo, Miss Mayme Ogden; music, The Ophean club; recitation, Miss Genevieve Carpenter; piano solo, Mrs. Kate Wood.

May Barton Colburn's violin solo was excellent. By request Miss Carpenter recited the Chariot race from Ben Hur, in her usual pleasing manner. Miss Amelia Zoerb is a charming elocutionist and the musical numbers on the program were worthy of praise.

The second part of the program was a spelling contest, with Mrs. Julia Noble and Mr. Thomas Biddle as leaders and Rev. J. A. P. McGaw as moderator. Miss Donnolly and Mrs. Johnson spelled the contestants down. There was an abundance of amusement over the program.

TOLEDO REPUBLICAN CLUB.

Election of Delegates to Columbus, Appointment of Committees, Etc.

There was a good attendance at the meeting of the Toledo Republican club last night, called out by the contest for delegates to the Columbus league convention. President Tucker presided, and Secretary Adams looked after the minutes.

An agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road expatiated on the merits of the line for the trip to the Minneapolis convention, but no action was taken.

Delegates were chosen as follows, after several had declined: James M. Ashley, J. Kent Hamilton, J. W. Caldwell, O. B. Snider, R. H. Adams; alternates—C. E. Sumner, Ed Crouse, B. Hubert, F. W. Rickenbaugh, B. O. Manchester.

Ten candidates were elected to membership.

The club officers and B. O. Manchester were appointed a committee to arrange for the incorporation of the club.

Standing committees for the year were selected as follows: Finance, H. C. Ellis, W. I. Squire, B. O. Manchester; house, R. H. Adams, Carl Beckham, J. W. Caldwell; entertainment, J. K. Hamilton, R. M. Parke, F. W. Rickenbaugh; membership, A. F. Wendt, S. W. Bolles, J. Englehardt, F. W. Rickenbaugh, B. O. Manchester.

HORSE SWINDLER,

A Rascal, Working an Old-Time Game, Claims to Hail from Toledo.

Toledo is getting credit for the transactions of a swindler who is operating about Dayton, as the following item from the Dayton Herald of last evening shows:

"A horse dealer, claiming Toledo as his home, has been engaged in what looks like decidedly crooked methods, along the Miami river, north of Dayton. From a statement given by one, Otto Wahrer, a wealthy farmer living some miles out of town, the horse dealer is an unscrupulous scamp. Wahrer's story is that he came to arrangements with the supposed dealer, and closed a bargain on Saturday night for the sale of several animals, in payment for which the stranger offered a check, purporting to be drawn by M. Jacobs & Co., cattle dealers, on Market street, Dayton, on the Teutonia bank, of Dayton, for the sum of $2,800.

"As the amount called for by the sale of the horses did not exceed $1,400, the farmer immediately had his suspicions aroused, especially when the stranger asked for the difference. Wahrer not having the money at his command, made arrangements to take the horses into Tippecanoe yesterday, and to leave the check at the Tippecanoe National bank for collection. This was done, but the suspicious farmer did not take his horses with him, wishing first to ascertain if the check was all right. Investigation soon brought to light that the check was a fraud, and that the transaction was shady throughout.

"There is no such firm in Dayton as M. Jacobs & Co., which is the firm that the stranger asserted had drawn the $2,800 check. N. Jacobs & Co., commission merchants and pork packers, of 31 East Market street, have no account with the Teutonia bank, and have issued no such check as the one offered in payment to Otto Wahrer."

AT THE OHIO CAPITAL.

The Sherman-Foraker Fight is Still On.

Making and Breaking Political Slates.

Buckeye Law Makers Seem to Entirely Ignore the Duties They Were Elected to Perform.

Columbus, Feb. 10—Just wait and see what the Sherman men will do this afternoon in caucus, was the remark dropped by more than one member of the house that supported John Sherman for the senatorship.

When asked to explain several said that they could not give any real reason except that the Foraker men would now have to take their medicine like men as there was nothing in sight to insure their happiness by the future appointment to office that had been pledged during the late contest.

With Blaine's withdrawal the Forakerites lost all energy while the followers of Sherman, Foster, McKinley, Hahn and Ben Butterworth are very jubilant, and it is expected that they will refuse to allow Foraker to go to Minneapolis as delegate-at-large.

The Sherman forces have a plan to present to the caucus for redistricting the state. In fact, it is the Carpenter gerrymander with a few slight amendments. It is safe to say that this measure will pass the house unless there is some deal made on the redistricting of judicial districts of the state. No office in this state will escape the eagle eye of the fellows that want to get their hands into the public crib.

After Adams Express Company.

The recent discharge of messengers by the Adams Express company has brought a bill introduced by Mr. Llewellyn to the public gaze, to protect employes and guarantee their right to belong to labor organizations. It provides that it shall be unlawful for any individual, firm, company or corporation to prevent employes from forming, joining or belonging to a labor organization, and any individual, firm, company or corporation that coerces or attempts to coerce employes by discharging or threatening to discharge from their employ, because of their connection with a labor organization shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $500 and imprisonment for not more than one year.

Boxwill's School Bill.

House bill by Mr. Boxwill providing for graduation from the common schools of sub-districts and special districts was put on its passage late yesterday afternoon. The bill elicited considerable discussion among the old teachers, but was passed. It provides that after the pupils of subdistricts and special districts have studied the ordinary common school branches they shall attend a county examination under the auspices of the county school examiners; and after successfully passing said examination shall attend a township commencement at which each shall deliver an oration or declaration or read an essay. They are then entitled to admission to any high school in the county. The bill further provides that the tuition of such pupils as enter the high school may be paid by the township or special district from which the pupil comes. The examination is made the first Saturday of April and May each year.

Fish and Game Commissioners' Report.

Representative Kelly, of Ottawa, submitted for the fish and game commissioners a report of their proceedings under an act to permit the owners of certain fish nets seized for non-payment of taxes imposed under what was known as the Poorman law. The supreme court declared the law unconstitutional. In the report the commissioners say that the gill nets were set in water less than 60 feet deep, which was contrary to law. It was the opinion of the commission that it had no authority to negotiate for settlement of all claims, as well as make settlement with those not having paid the tax under the Poorman act, so all matters were closed in so far as the commissioners were concerned. The report will be printed in the appendix of the journal.

Bills Introduced in the House.

The following bills were introduced in the house yesterday afternoon:

Mr. Molter—Authorizing the city of Sandusky to issue $30,000 in bonds to redeem outstanding sewer bonds.

Mr. Winn—Amending existing statutes so as to include cities of the fourth grade, second class, in its provisions which require the numbering of houses on streets.

Mr. Winn—Amending the law relating to the assignment of dowers so commissioners must appraise land at the cash rental value.

Mr. Tschbein—Amending the statutes so as to provide that all mortgages given within three months previous to an assignment shall be null and void, and the property thus mortgaged shall be turned over to the creditors.

Mr. Doty—Amending Section 3247 so that corporations organized for purposes other than profit, may have in the by-laws a provision for the election of a president directly by the members.

Mr. Iams—Increasing witness fees in justice courts to 75 cents per diem.

Mr. Reeve—Providing for the punishment for malicious shooting of cattle while the same are trespassing.

Mr. Reeve—Amending the ballot law by exempting from its provisions township and school elections, except in cities and villages divided into wards.

Mr. Gaumer—Requiring that applicants for teacherships shall be examined in addition to pedagogical branches, upon matters of general knowledge and information.

Penitentiary Managers.

Late yesterday afternoon the senate confirmed the appointment of Julius Whiting, jr., of Stark county; Wells W. Miller, of Erie county; William H. Reed, of Ross county; and George A. Hay, of Coshocton county, as members of the board of managers of the penitentiary.

The Election Laws.

Mr. Strock has offered for adoption the following joint resolution, which was laid over under the rules: "Whereas, The standing committee on privileges and elections has been kept busy in hearing contested election cases, and has not yet completed such work, and as there have been numerous bill referred to said committee amending the Australian ballot law, and as it will be impossible to consider the same for some time, it is recommended that the president of the senate and speaker of the house appoint a committee of two to prepare such amendments to said law as may be necessary, and embody the same in a bill to be presented to the legislature for its action, and that all measures in the senate and house committee on privileges and elections be referred to this committee when appointed.

Against the Fakirs.

Mr. Reeve's bill prohibiting the exhibition of any device within one-fourth of a mile of an agricultural society's grounds without permission of the society, passed the house this morning with an amendment, that the person must be engaged in such business at his place of residence.

Garnishee Bill.

Mr. Griffin's bill to allow a garnishee to demand his witness fee in advance, as other witnesses, passed the house this morning.

Home Rule.

The house passed the bill taking from the governor power to appoint natural gas trustees for Urbana and providing the appointment of same by the probate judge.

Paying Interest.

Mr. McCoy's bill appropriating nearly $300,000 to pay interest on the debt and irreducible debt and expenses of sinking fund commission passed the house.

Gas and Oil Investigation.

The house unanimously adopted Mr. McConica's resolution providing for a committee to investigate the leasing of oil and gas lands belonging to the state.

Arguments were made in the Sutphen-Snook case yesterday and this morning and at noon all the evidence and arguments was placed in the hands of the senate, and if politics does not sway the republicans, Sutphen will keep his judicial commission. The decision will be given late this afternoon.

Resigned.

The trustees of the Columbus insane asylum tendered their resignations to Gov. McKinley to take effect the 17th of this month.

Penitentiary Warden.

The wardenship of the penitentiary has, it is claimed, been tendered to Col. Chas. C. James, of Jackson county, who will accept it.

HAVEN OF BOODLERS.

Omaha Grand Jury Believed to Have Indicted a Number of City Councilmen.

Omaha, Neb., Feb. 10.—The grand jury last evening returned 32 indictments. Although the contents of the papers returned have been kept secret, it is believed that true bills have been found against a number of the members of the city council for boodling.

THE CIRCUIT COURT.

The County Commissioners Petitioned

To Locate the Same in the Walbridge Building with the Law Library.

A petition signed by the members of the Toledo Law association was presented to the county commissioners this morning requesting that rooms for a permanent circuit court be leased in the new Walbridge building.

The petition stated that the Law association had always furnished the circuit consultation rooms in their law library, but as soon as the Walbridge building was completed the law library would be moved to new quarters in that building. The room selected for this purpose will not be adequate to furnish consultation chambers for the circuit court. Mr. Walbridge would modify the plans of the building so as to provide room for the circuit court just below the law library.

The G. A. R. rooms, it said, was unsatisfactory, for the reason that there was no library in the vicinity, and the room is cold and uncomfortable.

Attorneys Baker and Tracy were before the board of commissioners this afternoon, and the matter was discussed to some extent. The commissioners are in favor of complying with the request providing the terms are satisfactory. The petition will be taken at the regular session next Monday. Mr. Walbridge will be present and some definite action will be taken.

HEALY IS A MILLSTONE

Around the Neck of the McCarthy Party.

No Terms of Compromise Will be Considered Until He Has Been Thrown Overboard.

London, Feb. 10.—The Standard in an article this morning says that it is rumored that Mr. John Dillon, M. P., was proposed as leader of the majority of the Irish parliamentary party but was withdrawn because a majority of the McCarthyites present gave it to be understood that they would not vote for him.

The Standard, continuing, intimates that Mr. John Redmond, Parnelite leader, formally declined to consider any terms which would bring about a union of the two Irish factions unless Mr. Timothy Healy, M. P., who heaped so much abuse upon the late Charles Stewart Parnell, was expelled from the McCarthyite faction.

RAILROAD CONSOLIDATION.

New Jersey Central and Lehigh Valley Combine.

The Vanderbilts Abandon the Southern Pennsylvania, and the Pennsylvania Assents.

New York, Feb. 10.—The New Jersey Central and Lehigh Valley railroads have passed under the control of the Reading Railroad company. The Reading companies guarantee the payment of dividends up to 7 per cent. on the stock of both roads.

The dividends, it is said, will be on a sliding scale for several years. To secure the guarantee the Reading company will put in trust, securities enough to cover the dividends to be paid. The amount needed in each year will be about $2,500,000.

Neither the New Jersey Central nor the Lehigh Valley road has been leased by the Reading company, because that is against the law. The executive officers of the two roads to be controlled have a conspicuous recognition in the reorganization.

The combination, it is said, will control nearly one-half of the coal trade, and it is believed that it means higher prices and better results all around for the trade.

It is understood the Pennsylvania company has assented to the combination, and that the Vanderbilts have agreed to abandon the Southern Pennsylvania scheme.

Douche the mixture into the cracks, crevices, holes and openings of the bedstead. It will turn their toes up rapidly. A LEVI AND JERRY TICKET

Slate Makers at Work in Washington.

Proceedings in the Houses of Congress.

An Adjournment Resolution for May 31 Introduced and Referred —Matters of National Interest.

Washington, Feb. 10.—A group of senators, discussing the presidential outlook, evolved a new ticket, which seemed to find considerable favor. This ticket is "Morton and Rusk." As is well known, Mr. Morton is held in high esteem by the senators on both sides of the chamber and many republicans would be glad to see him placed at the head of the ticket, not only for personal reasons, but because they recognize that his record, his probity and his extended circle of friends would make him an available candidate in any section, while his conservatism on financial questions and his success as a business man would attract the commercial circles of the east to him.

Mr. Rusk, of course, is popular with the agricultural classes, and his name has already been suggested on account of the strength with which he would develop in the northwestern and prairie states.

In the Senate.

Washington, Feb. 10.—The vice-president laid before the senate a communication from the secretary of war transmitting objections of lieutenants of the army to the proposed change from regimental to lineal promotion, as working injustice to the older lieutenants.

Mr. Chandler asked immediate consideration of a bill providing for the presentation of badges to Commodore Schley and the officers and men of the Greeley relief expedition, but on the objection of Mr. Morgan, of Alabama, the bill went to the calendar.

Bills were reported and placed on the calendar as follows:

To increase the rate of pensions in certain cases of deafness.

To amend the total helpless pension act.

To amend the act relating to those, who having participated in the rebellion, have since enlisted in the army or navy of the United States and become disabled.

To provide for a permanent system of highways in the district of Columbia, outside the city of Washington.

For the relief of the heirs of John Howard Payne.

Mr. Sherman reported from the committee on foreign relations, and asked immediate consideration, a bill providing for the Columbian historical exposition of commissioner-general and two assistant commissioners, to serve without compensation, to represent the United States at the Columbian historical exposition of 1892, in Madrid. The bill was passed.

Mr. Morgan stated that he knew nothing of the facts, but introduced it by request, presented and had read a long memorial complaining of unjust favoritism shown by the district committee to the Washington Market company, which was referred to the district committee.

When the Virginia and West Virginia contest over the direct tax fund came up again in the morning hour Mr. Frye, of Maine, called attention to the disregard of rule 8, under which this discussion was going on, which rule limited debate to five minutes.

Knowing the capacity of the senators from the two Virginias for debate, he anticipated that this discussion might occupy the morning hour for the balance of the session and he gave notice that he should object to its continuation after to-day.

In the House.

Washington, Feb. 10.—The house committee on coinage, weights and measures to-day, by a vote of 8 to 5, ordered a favorable report on the Bland free coinage bill.

A business atmosphere prevailed in the house this morning and the members seemed to realize that two months had passed without any practical legislative progress being made.

A bill was passed authorizing the construction of a bridge at Burlington, Ia. Considerable discussion arose over a resolution from the committee on accounts, providing for two additional messengers to be given to the republican side.

Messrs. Butler, of Iowa, and Hopkins, of Illinois, accused the democrats of extravagance in view of their pledges for economy, and their record for retrenchment.

Mr. Enloe, of Tennessee, twitted the committee for bringing in such a resolution and stated that these additional messengers were not needed.

Mr. Covert, of New York, thought the discussion was trivial and undignified, unworthy of this congress. He hoped the resolution would pass.

Adjournment Resolution.

Washington, Feb. 10.—An adjournment resolution for May 31 has been introduced in the house and referred to the committee on rules.

SIR JAMES CAIRD IS DEAD.

A Great Friend of Agriculture is Gone.

Brief Sketch of the Man Who Devoted His Life to the Tillers of the Soil.

London, Feb. 10.—Sir James Caird, K. C. B., F. R. S., the noted agriculturist, died to-day.

Sir James Caird was born at Stranaer in 1816, and was educated at Edinburgh. In 1849, during the protection controversy in England, he published a treatise on "High Farming as the Best Substitute for Protection," which attracted much attention, and which went rapidly through eight editions.

In the autumn of the same year Mr. Caird, at the request of the late Sir Robert Peele, visited the south of Ireland, and made an admirable report on the condition of the country and the means to improve it.

In 1850 and 1851 Mr. Caird, as commissioner of the London Times, conducted an inquiry into the state of English agriculture and his letters on that subject were published in a volume which was subsequently translated into French, German and Swedish, and was republished in the United States.

In 1858 he published an account of a visit to the prairies of the Mississippi, a translation of which appeared on the continent of Europe. Mr. Caird was twice elected to parliament and in 1860 was appointed a member of the fishery board.

In 1863 he became chairman of the royal commission on the sea fishery of the United Kingdom, Prof. Huxley and Mr. Shaw Lefevre being his colleagues. In 1864 Mr. Caird, after many years of perseverance, carried a resolution of the house of commons, in favor of the collection of agricultural statistics, and they are now published annually.

In 1878 Mr. Caird was appointed by the government of India to serve on the commission to inquire into the subject of famines, and he was created a knight commander of the Bath (civil division) in 1882.

The entertainment which was to have been given at Auburndale this evening for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A., has been postponed until next Wednesday evening.

Miss Nellie Cook and Mrs. Geneva Johnston-Bishop will give a piano and song recital at the Van Wert opera house, next week. With two such popular artists, the affair cannot help but be a success.

The charity concert, which is under the direction of Elvin Singer, will occur on the evening of February 22, at Mrs. Fred. Shoemaker's residence on Superior street. This promises to be a musical treat and is given for the benefit of the Protestant Orphan's home.

Mr. George Hamrick, the popular dry goods merchant at the corner of Monroe and Twenty-second streets, and Mrs. Ella Hinkley, of East Toledo, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock on Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Hamrick will reside on Bartlett street.

The third annual ball and card party given by Toledo lodge, Knights of Honor, was held at Odd Fellows' temple last night, and was a decided success. A program of 24 dances was observed, and all the other pleasures were indulged in. The floor committee was composed of Messrs. A. J. Cone, G. W. Wells, H. C. Marsh, C. E. Howe, A. H. Rasor, G. M. Baker, F. A. Emch, D. W. Barry, and M. N. Finney.

Quite a number of young friends gathered together last evening and gave Miss Carrie Cooley, of 514 Superior street, a very pleasant surprise. Those comprising the party were: The Misses Rose C. Henzler, Rosa Johnson, Kitty Coghans, Anna Cooley, Dolly Walsh, Lizzie Schinzel, Augusta Schinzel, Lorena Ewing, Bertha Henning, Louisa Maag, Abbie Harrington, Bertha Scherlitz, Lilly Kruger, Anna Eckhardt, Kitty Holiger, Laura Pearlstein, Charlotte Mosbach, and Julia Fox; Mrs. Jane Cooley, Mrs. H. Walsh, and Messrs. V. Richard Wilson, Harry Riess, A. Eckhardt, Fred Bailey, Foster Farrar, Fred Anable, Ellison Hoger, Charles Krueger, D. Felton, C. C. Raush, Charles Raush, Charles Pealstein, William Holliger, B. Rivers, W. J. Schroeder, Geo. Hagaman, Julien Franc, Willie H. Cooley, Tom Chapman, Harry Vansickle, A. S. Holberg, M. Drizzle, Albert Sanford and Tom Rook, of Chicago.

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, causing distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, a faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet efficiently. It tones the stomach, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, banishes headache, and refreshes the mind.

Distress After Eating

Sick Headache

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. After eating I would have a faint or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble was aggravated by my business, painting. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, which did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced."

Accidents Will Happen.

Political Boodler (angrily)—How in creation did you happen to lose my case?

Lawyer (apologetically)—It was all an accident, my dear sir, all an accident.

"How was it?"

"You see, I was so busy working up your political pull on the judge that I forgot to hang the jury.—Life.

Observed a Resemblance.

Tommy (to the visitor)—"Mr. Van Osdol, I think you look just like George Washington."

Mr. Van Osdol (highly pleased)—"Thank you, Tommy, I look like the Father of his Country, do I?"

Tommy—"Yes; your false teeth don't seem to fit you."—Chicago Tribune.

Equal to Anything.

Two men at the stock yards got into a heated discussion the other day over the law of supply and demand, and one of them said:

"There isn't any use in arguing with a man who doesn't understand the elementary principles. You don't even know what a syllogism is."

"I'll bet $50," replied the other, purple with rage, "that our packing house turns out more cans of 'em in one day than the one you're working in does in a month." —Chicago Tribune.

A Boy's Essay on Breath.

A little boy in the North Side public school recently handed in to the teacher his following composition on "Our Breath:"

"Our breath is made of air. If it were not for our breath we would die. The breath keeps going through our liver, our lights and our lungs. Boys shut up in a room all day should not breathe, they should wait until they get out doorz. Air in a room has carbonocide in it, and carbonocide is poisoner than mad dogs. Once some men was shut up in a black hole in India, a carbonocide got into that there hole and afore morning nearly every one of them was dead. Girls wear corsets which squeeze their diagrams too much. Girls cannot run and holler like boys cause their diagrams are squeezed. If I was a girl I would just run and holler so my diagram would grow. That's all on breath."

Mr. Beecher Was Surprised.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher's love for children was well known. He always listened to their prattle with interest, and they talked to him with fearless frankness on all subjects. He was sometimes startled by their remarks. He used to tell the following story with enjoyment: One Sunday, as he was returning from church, he was overtaken by one of his parishioners who held his little daughter by the hand. In his sermon that day he had earnestly exhorted every one to practice human kindness. The little girl, evidently anxious that her father should be rebuked, volunteered the information that papa had scolded Mary that morning.

"And who is Mary?" inquired Mr. Beecher.

"Why, Mary is our cook," replied the little gossip.

"Well, well, that is too bad. But I hope papa doesn't scold mamma," said Mr. Beecher, with a twinkle in his eye, as he glanced at his old friend. "Well, I guess not!" said the small damsel. "My mamma isn't a servant—none of my parents ain't servants. Why, they ain't even servants of the Lord."

A Reminiscence of the Late Census.

Census-taker (to the queen of a certain kitchen on Maryland avenue, Baltimore,) —"What is your name?"

Queen of the kitchen—"My name's Ma'y 'Liza Jones.."

Census-taker—"Where were you born?"

Ma'y 'Liza—"I wuz born in Glou'ster Cote-House, Fagínia."

Census-taker—"How old are you?"

Ma'y 'Liza—"I reckon I's 'bout twenty-three years ole."

Census-taker (examining the elderly black countenance before him with a puzzled expression)—"Were you born before the war, or since the war?"

Ma'y 'Liza (indignantly)—"I wuz born 'fo' de wah. I ain't no sence de wah nigger. Dese here sence de wah niggers ain't no count. I's a 'fo' de wah nigger."

Census-taker—"Are you married?"

Ma'y 'Liza—"I reckon I is. I got a married daughter where got one chile."

Census-taker—"How long have you been married?"

Ma'y 'Liza—"I speck I bin married 'bout twenty years. I got seven chillen, an' all dem's grown."

Census-taker (reading aloud)—"'Mary Eliza Jones. Born before the war at Gloucester Court-House, Virginia; aged twenty-three years; been married twenty years; and the mother of seven grown children.'"—Harper's.

THEY WANT NEW QUARTERS

Annual Meeting of the Central Chandelier Company.

A Prosperous Year, and More Room Necessary—A Committee Appointed to Look Up Location.

The Central Chandelier company held its annual meeting to-day. The report of the manager, Mr. H. T. Yaryan, was encouraging to the stockholders. The business of the year was much better than was anticipated, and the prospects for the present year are even better.

It is apparent that the present quarters are entirely too small for the business, and enlarged facilities for manufacture are necessary.

The old board of directors was elected, as follows: A. Stuart, N. H. Swayne, G. G. Hadley, F. P. Chapin, F. B. Dodge, George H. Ketcham and H. T. Yaryan.

The newly elected officers are likewise the same as the past year: H. T. Yaryan, president; F. P. Chapin, vice president, and F. B. Dodge, secretary and treasurer.

A committee consisting of H. T. Yaryan, G. G. Hadley and N. H. Swayne was appointed to consider the advisability of securing a new building, with more room for manufacture. The present building can only be used by running day and night. The committee will give this matter immediate attention.

GAS COMMITTEE.

First Meeting and Organization This Morning.

Mayor Emmick Elected Chairman and Mr. Tucker Secretary—Investigations to Commence at Once.

The committee appointed by the mayor to investigate the city gas plant met at the mayor's office this morning, all members being present except Dr. Forbes, who was unable to attend on account of other business.

The committee organized by electing Mayor Emmick chairman and Mr. W. H. Tucker secretary.

An informal discussion was held on the matter of city gas, and the committee decided to hold a conference Friday evening with the board of gas trustees, the meeting to be held in the Mayor's office. It seemed to be the sentiment of the committee that they should make a trip into the field early next week.

John Poag's Dogs Beau Sire and the Handsome Rex

Carry Off First Prizes in Their Class at the Chicago Dog Show—Rex is a Daisy.

Mr. John Poag's two handsome dogs, Beau Sire and Rex, carried off first prizes in their respective classes at the Chicago dog show yesterday.

A special from Chicago to the Bee says:

"At the dog show here to-day Beau Sire, a strikingly handsome rough-coated St. Bernard, took first prize in the novice class, and Rex, a handsome son of the world's late champion, Watch, took first in St. Bernard puppy class and also first in novice. Both dogs are owned by Mr. John Poag, of Toledo."

Mr. Poag has established quite a name for Toledo as a great dog-producing center. Rex will equal, when full-grown, his famous father, Watch.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Margaret Mather in a New Double Bill

At Wheeler's To-Morrow—Rice's Evangeline Next Week—Alabama.

An evening of rare enjoyment is promised for those who attend Margaret Mather's presentation of her new double bill of Nance Oldfield and The Love Chase, at Wheeler's opera house to-morrow night, February 11.

Miss Mather is a Toledo favorite, and she has with her the following strong company: Otis Skinner, Josephine Eytinge, Carrie Jamison, Blanche Rochester, Margaret Murray, Katherine Murray, "Little Alexandrine, Richard Wolff, Joseph E. Whiting, H. A. Langdon, James Cooper, White Whittlesey, Stephen Wright, Gilmore Scott, Henry Patterson.

The new play which Margaret Mather is to bring out at Chicago, February 15, will be called The Egyptian, and in its sudden transitions of emotions will give her new opportunities for the display of her powers. The story is that of Victor Hugo's Hunchback of Notre Dame, and the dramatization is credited with possessing all the action, fire, spirit and dash of the novel. Miss Mather will essay the role of L'Esmeralda, the Egyptian, Mr. Skinner that of Calude Frollo, Joseph E. Whiting Quesimodo, with the balance of the company to good advantage.

Evangeline.

Rice's famous burlesque, Evangeline, comes to the People's next Monday for a week. This popular extravaganza is perhaps the most successful play of its kind ever produced, for this year marks its seventeenth consecutive season. This great record is probably due to the fact that the production has always been kept up to a high standard.

Evangeline combines features of comedy, spectacle, opera and burlesque, and the scenery is beautiful, comprising, as it does, views of Arcadia, the scene of Longfellow's great poem, the diamond mines of Africa and an Arizona landscape.

Alabama.

The wooing of Hiawatha is said to be no more lovely and contains no more true poetry than does the wooing of Mrs. Page by Capt. Davenport, the two principal characters in Augustus Thomas' sweet-toned romance of the south, Alabama, nor yet, the Biblical story of the return of the prodigal no more affecting in its simplicity, no more true in its delineation of the strength of "the ties that bind" than is the return of Col. Preston's long-estranged son to his old father broken with grief and to his old southern home. Alabama is said to be a beautiful pastoral idyll, a complete poem in four acts, and the man who cannot be moved by its beauty and pathos must, it is stated, be without a soul. This piece will be put on at Wheeler's next Monday night.

WRECK IN THE YARDS.

It Don't Pay to Switch on a Regular Train's Time.

Chicago, Feb. 10.—Through the recklessness of an employe in attempting to do some switching on another train's time this morning, a train of empty coaches collided with the smoking car of a suburban train in the yards of the Chicago & Northwestern railway, and half a dozen passengers were more or less injured.

Four persons had to be given surgical aid before they could leave the depot.

The company carried home on a special train those of the injured who did not feel able to go to their places of business.

GOT INTO COURT.

The Old Controversy Over the Canal Water

For the Detwiler Mill—Damages to the Amount of $30,000 Asked From the City.

In common pleas court to-day A. K. Detwiler, as administrator of the estate of Isaac H. Detwiler, brought action against the city to recover $30,000 damages. The suit grows out of a contract of the state with plaintiff for the use of 1,600 cubic feet of water per minute, to supply power to a flouring mill operated by the plaintiff from the canal. The work house used water from the same place, and the plaintiff claims the city utilized all the surplus and that it was impossible to run their mill, to their damage of $30,000.

BRAZILIAN CAUCUS.

Buenos Ayres, Feb. 10.—During the coming week a caucus will be held to discuss the claims of the candidates for president.

The frauds in last Sunday's elections continue to engross public attention. Advices from Montevideo state that the revolt of the troops there has been suppressed and that the leaders have been placed in jail.

FROM FAR-OFF HAWAII.

Newsy Correspondence From the Islands.

The Biennial Elections About to Take Place, with Indications That the Liberals Will Win.

Honolulu, Feb. 2.—Hawaii is now on the eve of the biennial election and the three parties which now represent Hawaiian politics are all afield. These parties are the national reform (the Mechanics' union which is all that is left of the old reform party); the liberal, led by Robert Wilcox and C. W. Ashford, and the native sons of Hawaii, led by J. A. Cummings, a former cabinet minister. There is not as yet any advantage held either by the nationals or liberals, the two leading parties, although the indications point to a liberal victory, which would place Wilcox and his party in power. Their battle cry is "Hawaii for Hawaiians" and they advocate the proposed change in the present constitution and a new treaty with the United States.

The nationals charge the liberals with stealing their thunder in the matter of a treaty, but are opposed to any change in the constitution.

The steamer Australia leaves here 24 hours before the final result is to be reached, so that the news of the outcome will not be available in San Francisco until February 18 by the steamer Mariposa.

A stir was created during the campaign by a charge made by C. W. Ashford, ex-attorney general and member of the liberal (Wilcox) party that Lorrin A. Thurston, ex-minister of the interior and member of the national reform party, has received a bribe of $500 for assisting a certain railroad scheme. Thurston acknowledged the receipt of the money but said it was a Christmas present, and was for various services performed in his capacity as a lawyer.

The Australian system will be used in balloting, and by order of the minister of the interior, the voters are allowed four minutes to prepare ballots.

The outlook now is that the liberal, or Wilcox, party will secure three out of the five nobles and five out of the eight representatives to be elected from Honolulu and the near vicinity. It is also expected the liberals will bring in a majority of representatives from the other islands. It has been stated that Wilcox personally will not be elected and the reason for this is given out to be that he would be debarred by law from obtaining any lucrative official positions, if elected a representative, and that he is willing to forego legislative honors for the prespective large returns which often fall to worthy members of a successful party. The annexation bubble seems to be pricked, the attempt to make it a political question in the present campaign having failed.

Queen Liliuokalani celebrated her first anniversary of her accession to the throne at Hawaii on the 29th ult. Announcement is made that H. E. Widemann, is appointed to the office of minister of finance, vice J. Mott Smith, at present in Washington, who is said to have resigned. It is probable the steamer Australia carries forward Smith's appointment as successor to the late H. A. P. Carter, who was Hawiian minister at Washington, but no announcement to that effect has been made here.

GENDRON IRON WHEEL CO.

Establish a Branch Institution in Chicago.

New Building 50x125 Feet to be Erected—The Details Closed Yesterday.

Yesterday the Gendron Iron Wheel company closed negotiations for a site and the erection of a large branch establishment in Chicago.

"Our business has been growing at such a rate that we deemed such a step a necessity," said Mr. Geo. H. Fisher to a Bee this morning. "The building, which we propose erecting at once, will be 50 by 125 feet and a solid building. No, we will manufacture all our goods in Toledo as heretofore. Our Chicago building will be used exclusively as storage, show and salesrooms."

The Gendron people are doing a great business, and are branching out in all directions.

IN TRADING CIRCLES

Both at Our Home and Abroad.

Wheat Quotations for the Day—Price Current for Produce and Other Articles.

London wheat market very quiet, and 3 pence per qr. lower. Corn quiet and steady. Liverpool wheat demand light, prices 1-2 pence lower. Corn dull, 1-2 pence lower.

The receipts of wheat at seven principal western points to-day are 465,686 bu, compared with 239,259 bu on the same day last year.

The New York produce exchange authority says: Of the 1,238 ship loads, only 25 were carried under the American flag. There are only four American steamers left in the grain carrying trade; they are the old passenger steamers of the late American line, which used to run from Philadelphia under the control of the Pennsylvania railroad. These four lonesome steamers—about all that is left of the American trans-Atlantic merchant marine—made 25 voyages during the year.

Great Britain has the lion's share of the world's carrying trade, and no less than 792 ship loads left this port under the British flag last year.

The stocks of grain in private elevators at Chicago are reported at 2,470,000 bu. wheat, 785,000 bu. oats, 78,000 bu. rye, 215,000 bu. barley.

New York Produce Exchange Weekly says: The wheat on passage from India, January 19, estimated by Beerbohm at 3,728,000 bu., including 2,976,000 bu. to the United Kingdom and 752,000 bu. to the continent. One year ago the quantity afloat from India was 2,888,000 bu., comprising 2,008,000 bu. for the United Kingdom and 880,000 bu. for the continent.

Official reports on the prospects of India's wheat crop are not favorable, on the whole—much less so than a year ago. In the Punjab the area is estimated at 7,153,400 acres (increase 1.1 per cent.), with rain wanted everywhere, and in some districts urgently. In the northwest provinces and in Oudh there has been some increase in area with prospects fairly good. In the states of the Bombay presidency area and condition is very irregular. Private advices say that crops as a whole are suffering from lack of the usual winter rains.

The receipts of wheat at Bombay, India, in 1891, were 26,234,735 bu., compared with 11,843,165 bu. in 1890. The exports were 22,254,171 bu., compared with 9,096,100 bu. in 1890. The same authority says: The supply of breadstuffs in the United Kingdom for the week ending Jan. 30 were 341,000 bu. less than estimated consumption.

Receipts of wheat are increasing. At Minneapolis and Duluth to-day 312,244 bu, and at five other western points 154,442 bu.

The export clearance yesterday at four Atlantic ports were wheat 283,382 bu, and flour to and aggregate of 520,000 bu. Exports of corn were 285,183 bu, and of oats 41,956 bu.

English markets as reported herein are lower, but stated to be steady and quiet at the decline, for wheat and corn.

The Markets To-day.

Bradstreet's report of the visible supply makes wheat, east of the Rockies, increased 63,000 bu, corn 1,648,000 bu and oats 273,000 bu. On the Pacific coast wheat decreased 892,000 bu. Net decrease in wheat on both coasts 829,000 bu.

The telegraph announces that the Michigan secretary of state estimates the wheat crop in Michigan to be in good condition.

Yesterday after 'change the Chicago wheat market made a bad lurch to leeward, but recovered most of the decline.

The news to-day and last evening is mostly confined to contradictions of previous bull reports, without new statements to be denied to-morrow.

The wheat markets in this country opened quiet and weak, and declined. At Chicago May wheat sold down to 88 1-2c. Then a rumor came from Washington that the sentiment against the passage of Washburn bill was increasing, and the wheat markets east and west at once jumped 1 3-4c bus. It is a good illustration of the influence of this bill on the value of grain, and while the uncertainty of its passage overshadows the market we may look for unsteady prices, up and down according to the prevailing sentiments at the moment. On the upward wave May wheat at Chicago sold up to 90 1-4c, but lost a part of the advance before the close.

There is no change worth noting in closing foreign markets.

In New York February wheat closed 1-8c and May 3-8c higher. February corn 1-8c up and May 1-8c down. February oats 1-4c higher.

In Chicago February wheat closed 1-4c and May 1-4c higher. February corn 5-8c and May 1-2c higher.

In Toledo.—We have had an active market for May wheat with sales aggregating 500,000 bu. Opening sales indicated a weaker market, but there was a gain of 1-2c, and later a loss of 1c, until the Washington rumor of a change of sentiment on the Washburn bill, when price rallied 1 1-2c and closed at the best price of the day, and 1-4c higher than yesterday. On the call May wheat sold at 94 1-4c. After the call at 94 1-8c to 94 5-8c, and to 93 1-2c, closing at 95c.

Cash wheat was in request but there was but little done. Not much for sale. No. 2 soft sold at 92c to 91 1-2c, and closed at 92 1-2c, a gain of 1-2c. No. 3, 89c bid. Nothing in other grades. Corn—No. 2 at 41c. No. 3 yellow, 41c. Nothing in oats. No. 2, 32c bid. Rye—No. 2 at 82c to 83c; No. 3 at 80c.

Clover seed was about steady, with only light trading. Prime for cash at $5 65; March, a shade lower at $5 62 1-2; No. 2 at $5 35 to $5 60.

THE PRESSURE WAS UP.

One City Consumer Who Had Enough Gas.

Serious Fire Caused by the Natural Gas Pressure Coming on While a Family Was Sleeping.

At least one consumer of the city gas line will not complain of the light pressure to-day.

L. W. Robertson conducts a saloon and restaurant at 938 South street, near Broadway, and lives with his family up stairs. Last night the family retired, leaving the gas in the kitchen stove burning. It seems the pressure came on in the night and heated the stove to a red heat. The heat was so intense as to set fire to the floor, which soon spread to the walls, which were ceiled. When the department arrived the kitchen was all in flames, but the fire was soon extinguished with only about $200 loss.

ANOTHER BIG DEAL.

C. S. Ashley Buys a Tract of Land

From Henry H. Cushing for Which He Paid $20,000—Mr. Ashley Will Now Handle Real Estate Himself.

A big real estate deal involving prominent Toledo property which was made some time ago has just come to the surface in local gossip.

One year ago Henry H. Cushing purchased five acres on the corner of Lawrence avenue and Bancroft street, of Walton Bros. He platted the tract into 24 lots and put the property on the market as Cushing's Lawrence avenue addition. Several lots were sold under the contract system.

Last week he sold the whole tract, contracts and all to C. S. Ashley for $20,000. Mr. Ashley will manage the addition and dispose of the property to the highest bidder.

A BIT OF HISTORY

Read to George Haskell, the Forger.

A Letter Received by Prosecutor Barber, Giving Evidence That Haskell is an Old Timer—He Gets Five Years

A sensation was developed in Judge Lemmon's court this morning when Geo. Haskell was brought up to receive sentence. Being given an opportunity to say a word for himself, Haskell made a pitiful plea. He said it was his first offense, and if the court would be merciful he would brace up and live a different life.

Judge Lemmon said that if he was satisfied that it was the prisoner's first offense he would make the sentence as light as the law would permit. But he had reason to believe that it was not, that Haskell had been in jail for a similar offense before.

Haskell declared that it was a mistake, and that this was his first offense.

At this juncture Prosecutor Barber came forward and stated that he was in possession of a letter from the warden of the state prison of Nebraska informing him that Haskell was a criminal of the most dangerous character; that he had been in states prison on various charges; that he was sent up from Kingston, Ont., and from Vermont, and from Nebraska; that he had been sent up in Nebraska for 15 years for forgery, under the name of White, but had been pardoned after serving eight years. He could be identified by certain scars and moles on his body, which the letter described most minutely.

Haskell stoutly denied the charges, and signified his willingness to submit to an examination. He was then removed to an adjoining room, and in the presence of Judge Lemmon, Prosecutor Barber, Sheriff Stuart and Turnkey Lutz the examination was made, and the marks were located as described in the letter, to a single one.

The court then passed sentence, fixing the time at five years.

TOLEDO, OHIO, FEBRUARY 10, 1892.

The most remarkable thing of present politics is John Sherman's announcement that he will not be a candidate for president.

When the state is judicially redistricted Lucas county will elect its own judges. This, of course, is intended to put three republicans on the bench. A few years since such a scheme was favored by some democratic attorneys and would have succeeded except for the persistent opposition of the Bee.

To-morrow is the mass meeting at Cooper Union to protest against the "attempt to forestall public opinion" by calling a convention out of season. A formidable array of names is subscribed to the call. It is hoped New York will get through with this skirmishing in due season and be ready for legitimate campaign work.

The people of Toledo are not so much interested in the investigation of the gas office as of the gas supply. They know the loosest business methods prevail in the office; that doesn't require investigating emphasis. The supply is all-important. No more theories are wanted. The mayor's committee should pocket sentiment and deal with facts.

Michigan was a long-time quiescent republican stronghold—too strong to possess any interest for either party when manipulations for political effect were under consideration. All this is changed now, thanks to a vigorous and aggressive democracy. Not only is Michigan a factor to be considered, but it has made a proper adjective for national use. It is now prophesied that "Nebraska will be Michiganized."

There is no city in the union where Grover Cleveland has warmer friends and admirers than in Toledo, and the public generally would be pleased to entertain him on the occasion of his visit to this section this month. He will be in Ann Arbor and Detroit on the 22d inst. He might easily come to Toledo and visit his sister, Mrs. N. B. Bacon, and meet our people. An effort to have him do so has been started which we hope will be successful.

Blaine is still on the stage; his resources for holding attention are remarkable. If he shall resign his present office, the conclusions will be, either he is a weak and worn-out man, and, sensible of his decline, desires to save a few years of life to himself; else he is out with the president, and by resigning now may recruit his strength to be carried into the Minneapolis convention by storm and in spite of protest. So long as Blaine breathes will a speculative portion of his party, along with the public generally, be suspicious of manipulations behind the drop curtain and be ready for surprises when it lifts.

Andrew J. White, police judge of the city of New York, is one of three Tammany representatives in Chicago securing quarters for the sachems during the June convention. In an interview in the Chicago Mail, Judge White says that the New York delegation will be solid for Hill, and that New York state will defeat Cleveland, if he is nominated. His objection to the latter is that "Cleveland isn't much of a democrat," and "there has always been a large element of the democracy against him." He approves of Hill because "Hill certainly does not take as advanced a position on the tariff as Cleveland, and he scorns the term free trader."

If Senator Hill has many friends to talk in this way in his name, they will certainly succeed in nominating and electing Grover Cleveland.

The educational bill before the Prussian Landtag provides for religious teaching in the schools of the empire. Choice may be made by the parents, but some religious instruction must be introduced in the public schools—if the bill shall become law. Emperor William favors it strongly, believing that morality and religion are closely allied, and that both are vitally connected with the safety of the state. There are too many atheists in Germany, he believes, and those who from lack of training and vacuity of mind in youth are not led in other and better ways "become the prey of anarchists and agitators whose creed is that property is theft, state should be destroyed and murder is a proper agent for aiding to bring the world into a new social order." There is much opposition to the bill, and outspoken denunciation of the expressed views of the emperor.

The "I" and "My" address of the queen was read before parliament yesterday. It is a model for brevity. When criticism was made that the Irish question was ignored, Lord Salisbury replied that "the order and prosperity prevailing in Ireland showed the confidence of the government in that country's fitness for local self-government." It seemed necessary for other milords to explain the attitude of the government on the Egyptian question and the Newfoundland trouble, which the message failed to do. The perfunctory pomp and ceremony of opening parliament has become an exceedingly indifferent affair. The throne chair stands faded and empty, and the royal procession moves no more as of old. The chief interest of the opening is in the House of Commons, where there is a suggestion of "the people's business." Royalty and its prerogatives are falling into slow decay in England. The jeweled scepter lies on its cushion, and the wonderful crown remains almost without interruption in the strong room of the tower.

Yesterday's Detroit Tribune flung the Alger banner out on the Michigan breezes with an hurrah. Five columns of its news space was devoted to the business under headlines beginning "All for Alger!" and the leading editorial is an announcement that the general is "Michigan's Candidate." The Tribune says:

> "It is clear beyond doubt that the republicans of this state are enthusiastic in their purpose to now send a delegation to Minneapolis instructed to employ every honorable means to secure the nomination of General Russell A. Alger. There is universal regret at the decision of Mr. Blaine. He was the whole state's first choice, and its affection for him is eloquently portrayed in the columns of the Tribune to-day. But since his decision not to be a candidate is peremptory and final, Michigan will urge the nomination of General Alger upon grounds of the truest loyalty to the republican party and of the highest aims as to the party's future."

Now, as the Bee advised, let the disgruntled Forakerites unite with the Wolverines in following under the leadership of this Moses. But the Bee, not being a false prophet, will not tender along with the advice the assurance that this Moses will lead them any further than the wilderness of defeat. The promised land, otherwise the White House, is not in sight for any leader of any faction of the republican party in this year of grace.

OHIO'S LATEST GERRYMANDER.

The latest gerrymander of the congressional districts of Ohio, as provided for in the bill which passed the upper branch of the legislature of that state last week, seems entitled to rank with the worst specimens of this sort of legislation. The democrats are given but five districts of the twenty-one, and their outlines are as mazy as a waltz. They run in every direction, and some of the districts are over one hundred miles long and twenty-five miles wide. It is encouraging to know that the measure has called out the condemnation of many leading republicans of the state, and it is doubtful if it passes the lower house. If it should, it ought to be vetoed by Gov. McKinley, whose injunction to the legislators to deal fairly in this matter is remembered to his credit.—Boston Herald.

Once more, the governor of Ohio has not the veto power, and if he had would hardly exercise it against the strong sentiment of his party. That sentiment is manifestly to gerrymander the state just as best serves partisan ends, and no leading republicans condemn the policy, the Herald to the contrary notwithstanding.

Already are the passenger lists of the big steamers filling up for the coming season. This engaging of passage long time ahead has been indulged in by the Gothamites only, heretofore, that they might secure the cream of accommodations, but the rest of the country seems to have "caught on" and parties from Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco are already listed for passage. Indications are, says our New York informer, that even the crush of last summer will be outdone. Next year the tide of travel will set this way. Rates are made so reasonable everybody is coming to the Fair.

"Why should our legislature interfere with idiots who insist upon going up in balloons at county fairs, and jumping out with parachutes?" asks Howard in the New York Recorder. Why, indeed, except that a larger number of idiots have come to consider it the chief function of government to be guardian of their kind.

If the object of Gen. Butler's book was to remind the public that it was forgetting him except as a monopolist manufacturer of bunting, it is well constructed. The general reader will hope that little attention will be paid to the numerous invitations which he gives for contests and denials.

The Courier-Journal is of opinion that the republican nominee for vice-president must be either Thayer of Nebraska or Bulkeley of Connecticut, because no other two republicans "have so distinguished themselves since the last presidential campaign."

The Boston Journal says that "with Blaine out of the field, voluntarily, there is no one to be thought of but Harrison; we want no side-show candidates." How does Gen. Alger like to be called a side-show by one of his good party editors?

Secretary Elkins' palatial home in Randolph County, West Virginia, has ninety rooms and is like a medieval castle or an immense resort hotel. He can hardly find quarters in Washington large enough "to turn round in."

Great hue and cry is raised in Paris because of the increased cost of living, attributed to the new tariff law. Paris is the pulse of France and Paris declares the tax law an abomination.

The New York exchanges tell a pathetic story of a woman who, too proud to make known her destitute condition, died of absolute starvation in that great, rich city last Friday night.

HALIFAX ELECTIONS.

Little Interest Shown in the Coming Contests.

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 10.—The election for the dominion parliament in Queens county yesterday resulted in the return of Frank G. Forbes, liberal, by 67 majority, a decrease of 34 votes from last year.

Mr. Forbes made the fight on the liberal policy of unrestricted reciprocity with the United States, while his opponent, Mr. Morin, conducted his canvass on purely local issues.

The election in Halifax for the two vacant seats in the dominion parliament takes place on Thursday, but no election here for years has caused so little excitement. The government majority, it is believed, will be reduced.

SNOW SLIDES IN AUSTRIA.

The Railroad Companies Suffering Great Inconvenience.

Vienna, Feb. 10.—The great snowfall in upper and lower Austria during the winter having been followed by warmer weather, the railways are greatly troubled by avalanches, which interfere seriously with the traffic.

In one instance a train was nearly buried in an immense fall of snow, and the passengers suffered severely before the obstruction could be removed, the appliances for that purpose being rude and inefficient.

SEXTON IS ON DECK.

He Makes a Stand for Irish Home Rule.

London, Feb. 10.—In the house of commons this afternoon, Mr. Thomas Sexton, member for West Belfast, gave notice of an amendment to the address to the crown, setting forth the alleged inability of the imperial parliament to legislate for the special interests of Ireland, and giving as instances of this inability, the failure of the local purchase act of 1891.

DECLARED CONSTITUTIONAL.

Wooster, O., Feb. 10.—The law passed by the state legislature authorizing any of the counties of the state to make a donation or levy a tax to secure the funds and thus the location of the state experimental station, has been declared constitutional by Judge Dowell.

DEATH OF CLARE LOOMIS.

Norwalk, O., Feb. 10.—Clare Loomis, only son and child of Hon. F. R. Loomis, editor of the Norwalk Chronicle, who has been sick with typhoid malarial fever for two weeks past, died yesterday afternoon.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Archibald Forbes is said to have made $100,000 by his lectures in Australia and New Zealand.

Another Polish prodigy has appeared in Vienna with extraordinary success. He is 7 years old and plays the piano.

"Mabel" F. Robertson, the clever novelist, is an Englishman, 34 years of age, who graduated from University college, London.

Mr. George Peabody Wetmore, who aspires to be the next United States senator from Rhode Island, is said to be worth from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000.

The late Cardinal Manning left no autobiographical notes. His executors will probably write the life of the eminent churchman and edit his letters.

For decency's sake it is to be hoped there is no truth in the rumor that Mrs. Ethel Osborne is in receipt of many offers from theatrical managers and lecture bureaus.

At a recent sale of the effects of the late Gen. Burnside at Providence, R. I., his library was purchased by Col. S. P. Colt, who will present it to the Rhode Island Soldiers' Home.

Sir Eyre Shaw, late chief of the London Fire Brigade, whose name was so unpleasantly introduced into the Colin Campbell divorce case, has been succeeded by Captain J. S. Simonds.

The Rev. J. W. M. Williams, of Baltimore, has been pastor of the First Baptist church in that city for 40 years and is yet without an assistant, although the church talks of giving him one soon.

Joseph James Cheeseman, Liberia's new president, is a Baptist minister, whom the Southern Baptist Missionary Convention of the United States appointed superintendent of its missions in 1871.

Prof. William E. Knapp, of Yale, who is soon to take the chair of romance, languages and literature in the University of Chicago, is master of 18 languages, including Icelandic, Swedish, Welsh, Spanish, Arabic, Hebrew, Russian, Portuguese and Bohemian.

The archbishop of Canterbury canters about London on a cob of some spirit, whose brisk movements are calculated to keep down "the pride of the flesh" in his master. Of all the riding costumes seen in Rotten Row the archbishop's is one of the oddest, being a combination of knee boots, shovel hat and apron.

MENTIONED ON THE STREETS.

That the city gas board is fast losing its original identity.

That ex-Alderman Degnan is about ready for his trip to Ireland.

That Judge Sala has retired from public view since Mayor Emmick dropped him.

That the Battery boys will have the final military ball before the Lenten season.

That it will be some months before the verdict is made known in the Overman case.

That it will be some time before the council boards agree to hold another joint session.

LIFE INSURANCE LEGISLATION.

A bill which can bob up serenely for five years at Columbus and never make any headway beyond the committee to which it is properly referred, ought to be useful to its projectors. Such an one is the measure introduced in the senate recently requiring all life insurance companies from this and other states to transact business in Ohio the same way Massachusetts companies do things at home.

Massachusetts has a good "non-forfeiture" law, though as everybody ought to know it applies only to its own companies, not to those from other states. Many companies organized under the laws of other states also have non-forfeiture features in their politices, but New York, for instance, doesn't try as a state to make a Massachusetts company go back on its home charter and write contracts according to New York law. Neither does Connecticut, nor New Jersey, nor Pennsylvania, nor any other state; and Ohio cannot do it either. But members can introduce a bill threatening something of the sort every year for five, and maybe for 50 years, and if the representatives of the life companies from this and other states do not soon thereafter give a little personal attention to the excellent winter climate at Columbus, it will be because they know the senate or house committee will hypnotize the measure promptly and effectually. Such a law can never be enacted, and if it could the supreme court would sit on it with an unanimous weight that would leave it thinner than the traditional pancake. What is it introduced for anyway?

THE ANTI-OPTION BILL

Causing Commotion Among the Grain Men

All Over the Country—Predictions of Evil to Follow the Enactment of the Measure Into Law.

Probably no event for some years has excited the grain marts so much as has the anti-option bill now being considered by congress. Nearly, if not all of the exchanges in the country have resolved against the measure, and forwarded their objections to their congressmen.

There is much interest among Toledo's grain merchants on the subject, and the opinion is generally expressed that it would be a bad blow at the city's grain interests to allow the bill to become a law. In yesterday's circular issued by C. A. King & Co., is the following from the pen of Mr. Frank I. King, president of the Toledo Produce Exchange, which probably voices the sentiment of grain men in general:

"Options are a curse; futures a necessity.

"If congress would stop the trading in puts and calls and suppress the bucket-shops, they would accomplish what is needed and merit the praise of all but the gamblers.

"If congress passes any bill to prevent legitimate trading in grain futures they will cause a revolution in trade. It would affect the farmers, the grain buyers, the country and city elevator men, the banks, grain dealers, millers, speculators and exporters. It would destroy competition and cause such a panic in prices as would injure the farmers and general business interests of the country. Those who vote for such a measure will be politically damned when their present terms expire.

"Congressmen, investigate carefully.

"Trades in puts and calls and in bucket shops are merely a gamble on the price. Grain contracts, like any other, are to be filled in the future. This enables the farmers and grain buyers to deliver at their pleasure, and take advantage of the market changes, as the miller, exporter and consumer can do in contracting for their future supplies, the same as wholesale and retail merchants do in all other trades. It takes two to make a trade; there is a buyer to every seller. Supply and demand regulate values.

"Restrict competition as the bill before congress proposes and the trade would be confined to a few millionaire millers and millionaire speculators. Unless there is an active trade in futures, so the banks can easily protect themselves, they will loan but little on grain receipts.

"Over half of the farmers of this country are compelled to sell two-thirds of their crop soon after harvest. This generally causes the lowest prices about August. Exporters, millers, warehousemen and speculators realize this, and generally buy freely about this time, making contracts for future delivery extending into the winter months. They have neither the money nor the room to take the actual wheat, and would be unable to buy except for current wants were it not for the trade in futures. This provides a demand for many millions when it is needed the most, and prevents prices being depressed as much as they would be if the farmers were at the mercy of the millionaires, who would demand a much larger margin in buying if they had less competition, and not enough trade in futures to easily protect themselves."

"APPROACH THE EAST"

Was the Order Given Past Master Williams,

And Obeying the Command He Received a Beautiful Jewel—The Reception Given by S. L. Collins Lodge of Masons.

A merry party assembled at Masonic Temple last evening in response to the invitation of the officers and members of Sanford L. Collins lodge, No. 396, F. and A. M.

The spacious and elegantly appointed apartments of the Masonic Temple were thrown open in welcome to all. The "Blue Room" was apportioned to those who desired to dance. The stage was transformed into an orchestra circle with beautiful flowers and rich foliage, most beautifully arranged.

In the asylum a musical program was rendered for the edification of those for whom the dance hall had no charm.

After a waltz and the grand drill, Worshipful Master A. P. Crane, in a neat speech, bid the guests a hearty welcome and stated that the evening was the date of a regular meeting of the lodge, and that a little business would be transacted before the pleasures of the hour continued. He then introduced Mr. John V. Shoemaker, and ordered Brother Frank R. Williams to "approach the east." Mr. Shoemaker responded to the introduction, and Mr. Williams "approached."

Holding in his hand a leather-bound case, Mr. Shoemaker stated it was a custom of the lodge when one of its honored leaders retired from the duties of office to recognize past efforts in the interest of the lodge, by a token of esteem and appreciation of the members. Mr. Williams had just laid down the responsibilities of master which had been assumed by him with credit to himself and honor to the lodge. During his term of office, he had labored zealously, and incessantly to promote the better interests of the body, and on behalf of the members he desired to present to him a past master's jewel, a memento of his worth in the esteem of his brothers.

Mr. Williams accepted the jewel with a pleasant address, after which the dancing and music continued.

At 11 o'clock the guests assembled in the banquet hall and partook of a dainty supper, as well as a feast of wit, and social discourse that was pleasant to all. It was a late hour when the party broke up, and all regretted that time was so fleet of foot.

TOLEDO A COFFEE CENTER.

The Toledo Spice Company to Have a New Plant.

An Offer to Leave Town Rejected—Looking for Twenty-Five Acres of Desirable Land.

The Toledo Spice company is going up a peg, said George W. Boos, one of the principal members of that pushing concern to a Bee:

"Our plant on Monroe street is rapidly becoming too small for our use, and we are going to move this summer. We have had a splendid offer to locate in another city, but we're going to stick to Toledo, as it is becoming an important coffee market, and will without a doubt be the Future Great.

"We are looking for a piece of land of about twenty-five acres, on the outskirts of the city, favorably situated on some railroad. Our business has more than doubled the past month and we are encouraged to go ahead with our project.

"I have just returned from a trip to Pittsburg and the east, and you would be surprised at the opinion coffee merchants have of Toledo. They say it is rapidly becoming one of the centers of the coffee trade of the country and they're about right."

A BIG SUN SPOT.

How to Observe It With the Naked Eye.

The Largest Spot That Has Appeared on the Sun's Surface in a Great Many Years.

The heavens are turning themselves loose lately to give us a good show, and the best part of it is that it is entirely free. Just at present the sun is doing some tall kicking up on its surface and Toledoans who desire can witness a novel sight, for on the sun's surface is an enormous sun spot, so large that it can be seen with the naked eye, protected, of course, by smoked glass. Such an occurrence is very rare. Of course there are quite a number of spots on the sun at all times, but they are generally only visible by the aid of powerful telescopes.

While this monster spot can be seen with the unaided eye, the view will be greatly enhanced by the aid of an opera glass or a small telescope. Be sure to hold the smoked glass always between the telescope and the eye.

The spot will be visible for several days, until the sun, which revolves on its axis in 25 days, will have turned around and the spot has been carried on the opposite side of the sun from us.

The sun's surface has been unusually disturbed for a week past. Large white masses have been piling themselves up on its surface, and indications pointed to the eruption that has taken place and formed this big spot.

A sun spot to be seen by the naked eye must be very large, at least 60,000 miles in diameter. There has only been one occasion in present times that a spot so large has been seen on the sun. It will be observed with a great deal of interest.

Another good way to see the spot is to darken a room that has a window facing the sun. Then prick a pin hole in a dark curtain and let the tiny ray of sunlight fall on a white card about a foot or so from the hole. A perfect image of the sun will be seen on the card, showing the spot.

The wedding was one of the most fashionable of the season. Bishop William Croswell Doane pronounced the benediction, and it was a notable fact that at the time he was so occupied the joint bodies of the legislature were electing him regent of the university of the state.

The newly married couple sail for Europe to-morrow. Among those present at the wedding were Governor and Mrs. Flower, Daniel Lament and many of the most prominent society people of New York, Philadelphia, Newark, Utica, Boston, New Haven, Poughkeepsie, Chicago, Ottawa, Ills., Ottawa, Ont., Buffalo, Detroit, and many places in this state.

A FIVE O'CLOCK TEA.

"Giggle, gabble, gobble, git"—
Thus does Oliver Wendell Holmes
Describe a five o'clock tea in a hit
Worthy recording in classical tomes.
Boston? Other cities as well,
All are endowed with the veritable kit—
Little of Browing, much of "jell"—
"Giggle, gabble, gobble, git."

"Giggle"—a veritable "te, he, he!"
Greeting a feminine guest or bon mot;
"Gabble"—discussion of all they see,
And of many things they think they know;
"Gobble"—Jove! how the darlings eat,
As later the hours in fluency flit;
"Git"—good-by to the "merry meet"—
"Giggle, gabble, gobble, git."

Browning—How shall they fathom the soul?
Elizabeth Barrett and Robert, too;
Ibsen—With Hedda Gabler's goal
In its nastiness in veritable view.
Reading, cooking, gossip, song—
Jericho! how the hours flit
Over in Boston, where the brains throng—
"Giggle, gabble, gobble, git."

Genial autocrat, take the thanks
Of a world grown tired of silly pretence,
For branding a clan which thinks it banks
On a circulating medium of sense,
When its members are "shovers of the queer"
In literature as around they flit,
On the surface where they may see and hear—
"Giggle,
gabble,
gobble,
git"

THE BLAND SILVER BILL.

It Must Stand or Fall in the House.

The Coinage Committee is Ready to Report.

Text of the Bill and Arguments That Will be Advanced in Favor of Its Passage.

Washington, Feb. 10.—The silver issue of the Fifty-second congress has been defined, and the Bland free coinage bill is to be ordered favorably reported by the house committee on coinage, weights and measures to-morrow morning.

This has been formally decided upon by the free coinage members of the committee, and as the result of the series of conferences, of the free coinage men, which closed to-day, it has been determined that not only shall the Bland bill be ordered favorably reported, but that speedy consideration of this measure shall be forced in the house.

Representative Pierce, of Tennessee, who has been one of the prominent leaders of the free coinage movement in this congress, secured the adoption of a resolution by the committee some weeks ago which fixed 11 o'clock to-morrow as the hour when the final vote should be taken by the committee on the free coinage bill.

The bill favored by Mr. Pierce, and which his free coinage colleagues in the committee to-day decided should be favorably reported to-morrow, is the last measure introduced by Representative Bland, the great free coinage advocate and chairman of the committee on coinage, weights and measures.

The men who have decided to vote in committee as a unit for the Bland bill to-morrow and promptly vote down all amendments offered by the opposition are Representatives Bland, of Missouri, Pierce, of Tennessee, Robertson, of Louisiana, Kilgore, of Texas, Epes, of Virginia, Williams, of Ohio, (democrats). Bartine, of Nevada, (republican), and McKeighan, of Nebraska, (alliance). As there are but 13 members of the committee of course these eight gentlemen will have their own way and promptly vote down all amendments and substitutes and force the Bland bill out of the committee at to-morrow's meeting.

Chairman Bland has been to-day framing the favorable report which is to accompany this bill, and hopes to have it completed in time to admit of the bill and report being presented to the house to-morrow and at once placed upon the calendar. The free coinage men claim that of the 332 members of the house they will have 200 voters in favor of the Bland bill. Ten or eleven of these, they say, will be republicans and the remainder democrats. Of the opponents of free coinage about 40 will come from the democratic side. The Bland bill, as amended by himself, and as it will be reported to the house, is as follows:

The Bland Bill.

The unit of value in the United States shall be the standard silver dollar as now coined, consisting of 412 1-2 grains standard silver or the gold dollar of 25 8-10 grains standard gold; that the standard gold and silver coins of the United States shall be a legal tender in payment of all debts, public and private. Any holder of gold or silver bullion of the value of $100 or more of standard fineness shall be entitled to have the same struck into any authorized standard coins of the United States free of charge at the mint of the United States, or the owner of the bullion may deposit the same at such mints, receiving therefor coin notes equal in amount to the coinage value of the bullion deposited, and the bullion thereupon shall become the property of the government. That the coin notes so issued shall be in denominations not less than one dollar nor more than $1,000, and shall be a legal tender in like manner and be invested with the same monetary uses as the standard gold and silver coins of the United States.

Sec. 2. That after the passage of this act it shall not be lawful to issue or reissue gold or silver certificates or treasury notes provided for in the act of July 14, 1890, entitled, 'An act directing the purchase of silver bullion and the issue of treasury notes thereon and for other purposes.' That all such certificates and treasury notes when received in the treasury shall be cancelled and destroyed and coin notes provided for in the first section of this act shall be based in lieu of the certificates and treasury notes so cancelled and destroyed; provided that nothing herein shall be construed to change, modify or alter the legal tender of such certificates or notes now issued.

Sec. 3. That the coin notes herein authorized may be reissued, but the amount at any time outstanding shall not be greater or less than the value of the coin and the bullion at coining value held in the treasury. That said coin notes shall be redeemed in coin on demand at the treasury or any sub-treasury of the United States, and the bullion deposited shall be coined as fast as may be necessary for such redemption.

Sec. 4. That any holder of legal tender gold or silver coins of the United States to the amount of $10 or more, may deposit the same at the treasury or any sub-treasury of the United States and receive therefor coin notes herein authorized.

Sec. 5. That the act of July 14, 1890, hereinbefore cited, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Sec. 6. That as soon as France shall re-open her mints to the free and unrestricted coinage of silver at her present ratio, namely, 15 1-2 pounds of silver to be worth one pound of gold, Troy, it shall be the duty of the president of the United States to immediately make public proclamation of that fact, whereupon the said ratio shall be the legal ratio in the United States and thereafter the standard silver dollar shall consist of 400 grains of standard silver and the law relating to the standard silver dollars of 412 1-2 grains standard silver shall be applicable to the new dollar of 400 grains standard silver. That the silver dollars of 421 1-2 grains then in the treasury or thereafter coming into the treasury shall immediately and as fast as practicable be coined into dollars of 400 grains standard silver. Any grain or seigniorage arising therefrom shall be accounted for and paid into the treasury.

Sec. 7. That the secretary of the treasury is hereby authorized and required to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this act."

Features of the Bill.

"The bill introduced by me and which the majority of the committee will tomorrow order to be favorably reported," said Chairman Bland, "is different from all other bills introduced in one particular. It contemplates the converting of all our silver money, silver certificates and treasury notes issued on bullion and gold certificates issued on gold into coin notes redeemable in coin, thus converting our paper into bi-metal paper instead of keeping up the distinction between gold and silver in our paper issues. This conforms to the idea of coining both metals on equality, gold and silver free. The coin notes are redeemable in coin and of course in whatever coin it may be most convenient for the government to redeem them in. The depositors of gold and silver bullion have the privilege of waiting until their bullion is coined and having the coin returned to them or they may deposit the bullion and receive coin notes at the coin value of the bullion deposited. The bullion then becomes the property of the government and is coined as fast as may be necessary for the redemption of any notes presented for redemption. It obviates the expense of coining all bullion at the time it is deposited."

"The people seem to be desirous," resumed Chairman Bland, "of using paper money instead of the coin itself—to prefer paper to coin and coin notes may be issued and the bullion held for coinage, to be coined only when necessary for redeeming notes. A man holding a coin note will not know whether it is a gold note or a silver note, for if he deposits gold bullion or gold coin he gets a coin note and if he deposits silver bullion or silver coin he gets the same kind of a coin note. It abolishes the present distinction between our coin notes.

"My bill also differs from any other bill that has been introduced in providing that France may resume the free and unlimited coinage of silver at her present ratio of 15 1-2 to one and the president makes a proclamation to the effect that that ratio shall then become our legal ratio and our coin shall conform to it. It is claimed that France will not resume free coinage now because the difference between our ratio of 16 to one and the French ratio of 15 1-2 to one would cause all of our silver to go to the French mint, which would be embarrassing probably to France to some extent and very much to ourselves. We wish to retain our silver money as well as our gold coin, hence there is a very good reason why our ratio and that of European countries should be the same. At any rate, there can be no pretext on the part of France for longer refusing to coin silver free, because our ratio is different from hers. Personally I care but little for this, but there are a great many people who think we ought to have a common ratio, and I have no objections to it and consequently am willing to conform to what seems to be the public sentiment."

"Have you your report prepared to accompany this bill so that it may be presented to the house immediately after the action of the committee to-morrow?"

"My report is nearly ready, and will be ready on the following day at the latest."

THE UNITED MINE WORKERS

Interesting Convention Being Held in Columbus.

Report on Strikes by President Rae—Figures From the Books of the Officials.

Columbus, O., Feb. 10.—The United Mine Workers of America convened in annual session with 100 delegates present and President John B. Rae in the chair yesterday.

The report of the credentials committee was received and the usual committees for the convention work announced by the president.

The committee on resolutions consists of Fred Dilcher, Ohio; Dan Lennon, Pennsylvania; M. Jackson, Ohio; Wm. Van Horn, Indiana; James E. Hall, West Virginia; Joseph Williams, Pennsylvania, and John Jasper, Illinois.

Gov. McKinley delivered an address of welcome in which he spoke of the importance of the mining industry, congratulated the miners and wished them prosperity.

The rules of the convention provide for the expulsion of any delegate appearing in the hall under the influence of liquor.

President Rae delivered the annual address. He referred to the fact that only about one-sixth of the total number of miners were organized. The question of the hour is to bring the unorganized states, Illinois, Maryland and West Virginia into line. He said they had not yet reached the point when strikes were necessary. Their experience tends to prove the statement that "combined capital when it is to its interest to do so, can defeat any labor organization in the world."

During the year there have been three notable strikes, being notable because they should never have taken place, and because they were failures. The strikes were the Pennsylvania coke strike, the Iowa strike and the Pittsburg strike. They demonstrate the hopelessness of sectional strikes.

The president favored the passing of a gross weight law in Ohio. He said the present year should see the system of weighing all coal before screening generally adopted.

He spoke on the eight hour day, and said when they were in position to enforce it they would have no trouble in getting it.

The report of Secretary and Treasurer P. McBride showed: Receipts, $70,025; expenditures, $63,430; balance on hand January 31, $6,595. The secretary in speaking of the several ill-advised strikes, said they had cost the organization $20,000 and lost it 7,000 members.

OVER HALF A MILLION

The Exact Amount of Bardsley's Defalcation.

Philadelphia, Feb. 10.—The official statement of the amount of the default of John Bardsley, as city treasurer, was to-day filed in common pleas court No. 2 by City Controller Thompson, together with Bardsley's bond.

The action was taken preparatory to the legal steps toward collecting on Bardsley's bond, upon Messrs. John and James Dobson were sureties.

Controller Thompson says that the ascertained amount of the default has been determined by him to be $553,908.62. The affidavit of default was sworn and subscribed to before Mayor Stuart on January 13 last.

STOOD THE TEST.

Allcock's Porous Plasters are unapproachable in curative properties, rapidity and safety of action, and are the only reliable plasters ever produced. They have successfully stood the test of over thirty years' use by the public; their virtues have never been equalled by the unscrupulous imitators who have sought to trade upon the reputation of Allcock's by making plasters with holes in them, and claiming them to be "just as good as Allcock's," and they stand to-day indorsed by not only the highest medical authorities, but by millions of grateful patients who have proved their efficacy as a household remedy.

Beware of imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for Allcock's, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

TO ATTEND THE FAIR.

Hartford, Conn., Feb. 10.—Gov. Bulkeley has issued a proclamation inviting all persons interested to meet in convention in the hall of the house of representatives at Hartford on Monday, February 22, at 11 o'clock, for the purpose of appointing a commission to organize and provide for an adequate and creditable exhibition of the arts and industries of Connecticut at the world's fair.

This afternoon and evening a delegation of postal clerks from Toledo and surrounding cities will go to Cincinnati to attend the annual gathering of the clerks in the fifth division, which is composed of Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and Tennessee. There will be several hundred present.

At this meeting the presentation of medals to those who won them for good work during the year will be presented.

It is expected that Superintendent Bell and other lights in the postoffice department will attend and participate in the reception which is to be held to-morrow evening.

Among those going from Toledo are Chief Clerk N. W. Coder and wife, John P. Krebs and wife, Capt. W. W. Myers and wife and E. R. King. Others who have not yet reported will also go down. A very pleasant time is anticipated, besides the benefits to be derived from the interchange of experiences.

It is not unlikely the proposition for a raise in salaries will receive a boost.

BAD ECZEMA ON BABY

Head One Solid Sore. Itching Awful. Had to Tie His Hands to Cradle. Cured by Cuticura.

Our little boy broke out on his head with a bad form of eczema, when he was four months old. We tried three doctors, but they did not help him. We then used your three CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using them eleven weeks exactly according to directions, he began to steadily improve, and after the use of them for seven months his head was entirely well. When we began using it his head was a solid sore from the crown to his eyebrows. It was also all over his ears, most of his face, and small places on different parts of his body. There were sixteen weeks that we had to keep his hands tied to the cradle and hold them when he was taken up; and had to keep mittens tied on his hands to keep his finger nails out of the sores, as he would scratch if he could in any way get his hand loose. We know your CUTICURA REMEDIES cured him. We feel safe in recommending them to others.

DEMOCRACY OF THE WEST

Meets to Commemorate the Birth of Tilden.

Grand Out-Pouring in Denver Yesterday.

Governor Boies, of Iowa, the Chief Speaker of the Evening—An Anti-Hill Sentiment Plainly Seen.

Denver, Col., Feb. 10.—Western democracy turned out in force yesterday to commemorate the birthday of Samuel J. Tilden.

At the head of the table sat the president of the Greystone club, with Gov. Boies and ex-Gov. Crittenden in the places of honor upon either hand, then ex-Gov. Alva Adams, of Colorado; Hon. J. D. O'Bryan, of New Mexico; Hon. David Obermeyer, of Kansas; Hon. Charles A. Clark, of Iowa; Hon. Robert J. Smith, ex-president of the Irequois club, Chicago; Hon. George W. Baker, ex-governor of Wyoming; Hon. Caldwell Yeaman, of Colorado, and ex-Gov. J. B. Grant, of Colorado.

President McKinley delivered the address of welcome for the Greystone club.

The event of the evening was the reply to the "Democracy in 1892" by Hon. Horace Boies, governor of Iowa. When Gov. Boies arose to speak he was greeted with deafening cheers and it was some time before he could proceed. He spoke in part as follows:

"Separating those who compose the factors of our government into groups and considering them as distinct parts of the grand aggregate of which the nation is composed, democracy must stand for the inflexible rule that between classes, as between individuals, there shall be no distinction of right, no favor to one at the expense of another.

"Applying these principles to practical questions with which the American people must deal, and remembering the position to which the republican party is committed, it is easy to foresee the supreme issue on which parties will divided in the contest of '92.

"No doctrine was ever more thoroughly imbedded in the creed of a political organization than that asserted by modern republicanism that the powers of this government may be used to promote the pecuniary interests of distinct classes of citizens, and no result was ever more certain than that which follows, if this can be done, that the same powers may be used to retard like interests of other classes.

"Three years ago a democratic president aroused the country by his declaration that "unnecessary taxation was unjust taxation," and by that declaration incorporated into the political creed of his followers as one of its cardinal principles, to remain, I hope forever, the doctrine that the rightful power of this government to levy assessments, direct or indirect, is limited to its necessities for revenue alone. This was no declaration of hostility to the manufacturing industries of this country.

"It was the assertion of a principle that put into practice would give to them free raw material—that would stimulate the commerce of the nation and open to the products of their mills the markets of the world—that would send the American flag at the masthead of our own merchant marine into ports from which it has been banished for a generation.

"Nor does a tariff for revenue only imply that American manufacturing industries are to be deprived of all the benefit therefrom. Theorize as we may, it would be impossible to so levy it on articles of any kind manufactured and consumed by our people. It does, however, imply that the purpose of levy must be revenue, not protection, and it follows that it should be so laid as to place the burden of the tax it imposes on the shoulders of those best able to bear it.

"Carried to its logical result, the doctrine would place upon the free list all articles of prime necessity. It would lift the burden of taxation from the shoulders of the toiling millions of this nation, and place it where it belongs, on the shoulders of those who possess its wealth.

"This is the supreme question of the hour. In the present status of political parties there is no power on earth that can accomplish this save and except 'the democracy in '92.' We must not falter. This is the issue, and this alone will lead us to victory."

During Gov. Boies' speech he was frequently cheered, and at its conclusion the applause was immense. The pleasant smile of Iowa's executive never left his face, and many people in the balconies trained their glasses upon him for a more familiar inspection.

Gov. Crittenden's reply to the toast, "Missouri, Ever Faithful," created a marked impression. It was strong and brave in its utterance and spirit. He advised the abatement of zeal for silver during the coming session of congress, and urged energy and attention in the direction of the tariff. He declared himself a Cleveland man.

Grover Cleveland sent a letter of regret at being unable to be present. It was as follows:

Ex-President Cleveland's Letter.

Lakewood, N. J., February 5, 1892.

"Hon. A. B. McKinley, President, etc.:

"My Dear Sir: My absence from home has necessarily postponed until this time a response to the courteous invitation I have received on behalf of the Greystone club to attend its annual banquet in commemoration of the birth of Samuel J. Tilden on the 9th inst. I am not sure that this acknowledgement and the expression of my regret that I am unable to accept your invitation will reach you before the evening fixed for the banquet; but I cannot refrain from the attempt to indicate to those who may be present my satisfaction in being remembered in the selection of your guests.

"This is a most excellent and appropriate time to recall the virtues and attributes of Samuel J. Tilden, the late great leader of he democracy of the land. In these days our party may remember with extreme profit his pure patriotism, his ambition, permeated with a desire of the welfare of his fellow countrymen, his splendid organizing ability, stimulated by his love of country and untainted with ignoble motives; his unyielding resistance to all that was undemocratic and unsafe, and his stubborn insistence upon everything which had the clear sanction of party principles. These characteristics, combined with his love for the people and his unfaltering trust in their intelligence and fair mindedness, made him a great democrat, and we cannot go amiss if we accept him as our political example.

"I hope the banquet contemplated by your club will be an occasion full of invigoration to those who, in the celebration of the 9th of February, demonstrate their devotion to the political honesty and sincerity which characterized Samuel J. Tilden, and that those who are fortunate enough to participate will see plainer than ever their duty and mission in resistance within their party, to all that is not safely and surely in accord with democratic doctrine, and in the advocacy at all times and in all places of the saving qualities of the true democratic faith.

"Yours, very truly,

"GROVER CLEVELAND."

Congressman W. P. P. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, sent the following letter regretting his inability to be present:

"If it were possible I would accept the invitation to be with the Greystone club at its annual event. Its name recalls the condition of the democratic party in 1880—our mistake during that year, and our consequent defeat. Our present condition is curiously similar to what it was then and the impending danger may be made actual by a similar mistake."

W. R. Grace.

The letter of regret from W. R. Grace, of New York, contains the following passage:

"I hope that the efforts of designing men in this state, who unfortunately control the political machinery, may not succeed in preventing the nomination by the national convention of New York's most eminent and patriotic son for president next June. The reforms initiated by Samuel J. Tilden, and more fully developed by Grover Cleveland, and which brought to the support of our party in this state thousands of conscientious, independent citizens, will, I trust, find nothing in the action of our national convention to force them to abandon the good and noble standard of democracy. In any case I will work and hope for the success of the party on the broad principle that divides us from the republican party, setting aside convictions in regard to individuals."

Many other letters were from all parts of the United States regretting the inability of the writers to be present.

ABOUT OHIO WAGES.

Some Interesting Labor Statistics Furnished.

Columbus, O., Feb. 9.—Based upon returns received from 1,976 of the largest and most important industrial and manufacturing establishments in the state of Ohio, the following figures as to cost of production and the wages paid producers have been rendered by State Commissioner of Labor Statistics John McBride.

It is unnecessary to point out the value of these statistics, which speak plainly and distinctly for themselves. The return is as follows:

1. The cost of materials, $121,830,816, added to $53,540,794, the amount paid in wages and salaries, makes $175,371,610, the entire cost of production. This deducted from $210,720,732, or the whole value of product, leaves a net profit of $35,349,122, or 24.58 per cent. at $143,802,911, the whole capital invested.

2. The capital invested equals $1,365,.22 per employe.

3. By deducting the cost of materials from the value of the product, the balance is the combined earnings of capital and labor, of which labor receives 60.23 per cent. and capital 39.77 per cent. (Labor here includes wage-earners and salaried officials.)

4. Of the $175,371,610 entering into the cost of production 30.53 per cent. was paid in salaries and wages, and the balance, 69.47 per cent., was paid for materials.

5. The total number of employes drawing $53,540,794 in wages and salary is 105,333; of this number 6,076 are managers, bookkeepers, salesmen and clerks drawing in the aggregate $6,833,458, an average salary of $1,124.66 each. Deducting 6,076 from 105,333 and $6,833,458 from $53,540,794, we have 99,157 wage-earners receiving $46,707,336, or an average of $470.05 each per annum.

6. Dividing the number of days worked during the year by the number of employes gives a working year of 294 days, which, at $470.05 per year, gives an average daily wages of $1.59.

7. The average number of hours worked per day is 9.7; this gives an average hourly wages of 16.3 cents.

SHAPING FOR CLEVELAND.

The West and South Will Demand His Renomination.

South Bend, Ind., Feb. 10.—The second annual banquet of the Tilden club was given here last night in honor of the anniversary of Samuel J. Tilden's birthday.

Prominent democrats from all parts of the state and adjoining states were present. The tables were set for 500 banqueters.

Letters of regret were received from ex-President Cleveland, Senator Palmer, Speaker Crisp, Congressman Springer and numerous other democrats of national repute.

Senator Palmer's letter was a practical indorsement of Cleveland's candidacy, and was received with enthusiastic cheers as was every other reference to Cleveland's name.

The name of Harrison was heard respectfully.

Judge Woods' name was greeted with jeers and laughter and a reference to Dudley brought out cries of "to the penitentiary with him."

THE FAILURE COMPLETE.

Assignee Gould on the Field Failure.

Debts Way Beyond the Million and Assets Foot Up Only Thirty-Nine Thousand.

New York, Feb. 10.—Charles W. Gould, the assignee of Field, Lindley, Weichers & Co., filed schedules to-day in the court of common pleas. The liabilities of the firm are:

Secured, $1,073,895.

Unsecured, $1,077,846.

Nominal assets, $917,876; actual assets, $39,336.

Mr. Gould states that it is impossible to determine positively the status of the firm's affairs with the persons and corporations mentioned in the schedule. A final settlement, he says, can be obtained only after investigation and some litigation. Values on many of the claims would be a matter of speculation merely. He thinks a considerable sum may be realized from a number of the claims.

DEAD SEA FRUITS.

They slay multitudes when they are the product of neglect and incipient disease. A "slight" cold, a fit of indigestion, biliousness or constipation each or any of these "minor ailments" advance in many cases with "league-destroying strides." Give them a swift, early defeat with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters and avert the danger. Abernethy administered an alarming rebuke to the man who informed him that he had "only a cold!" "Only a cold," repeated the doctor. "What would ye have—the plague!" Rheumatism and la grippe are easily extinguishable at the start. Why then allow them to get a full head of steam? Put on the brakes with the Bitters. The genial warmth which this superb medicine diffuses through the system, the impetus it gives to the circulation of the blood, its soothing and strengthening effect upon the nervous, specially recommend it to the enfeebled and sick. 'Tis the great specific for malaria.

BOYS' LEAGUE.

Organization of Ashland Avenue Baptist Boys,

Under Direction of the King's Daughters—Entertainment Last Night.

In the Ashland Avenue Baptist church and Sunday school there is an organization that is something of a novelty in a way for this city. It is a "Boys' League," and is composed of boys ranging in age from 7 years to 14.

The boys of this age have almost no place in the church; they are too old to be classed with the little ones and yet not old enough to be taken in by the young people's society of the church, consequently the boys are generally left out, and often times as a result of this neglect they drift away from the Sunday school and the church.

Some time ago a circle of King's Daughters was organized among the young ladies of the Ashland Avenue Baptist church, with Miss Mary Warner as president. They almost immediately resolved to look after the young boys of the Sunday school, and this Boys' League was organized.

One of the requirements of the league is that its members shall also belong to the Sunday school. The league has been organized about two months and has passed the experimental stage to that of unqualified success. It has a membership of about 50, and is constantly increasing.

The league meets every second Tuesday evening at the church and spends about two hours in a pleasant and instructive manner. First, a half hour is utilized in military drill and the boys have made considerable progress under Mr. Charles O'Brien, of the Cadets. Mr. O'Brien has now turned the class over to Mr. Ed Pixley, and he acted as their drill master for the first time last night. After the drill they are given a brief talk on some instructive subject, and thus far they have had a very excellent course of interesting lectures. The evening is then concluded with a half hour's entertainment of some sort.

This course has proved very beneficial for the lads, and they take great interest in the league, attending all meetings regularly, and the Sunday school attendance is also increased. The work is under the direct supervision of the pastor, Rev. E. W. Hunt, and much of the success of the league is due to his efforts in its behalf.

At the regular meeting last evening the program was changed and the boys took charge of the meeting themselves and entertained the young ladies of the circle in a delightful manner.

After the drill and opening exercises the program consisted of music and shadow pantomime. Little Miss Annin rendered two excellent zither solos, Rev. Hunt read a chapter from Tom Sawyer, and the boys then illustrated it in shadow, and they also illustrated an amusing story of "A Wonderful Crocodile," after which the pop-corn and candy was served.

MYSTERIOUS CASE.

Three Men Disappear Under Very Curious Circumstances.

Washington, Feb. 9.—A week ago Charles West, a bookbinder in the government printing office disappeared and nothing has since been heard of his whereabouts.

It has developed that Clifford Price, 23 years old, has also mysteriously disappeared and he answers the discription of a man with whom West was last seen.

To add to the element of mystery in the case a man told Price's mother that he was "Mr. Brown of Alexandria, Va.," was with West and man supposed to be Price when West was last seen. The police think there has been some foul play.

BEAT THE BANK.

Cleveland, Feb. 9.—Edwin C. Williams is behind the bars of the county jail on a charge of defrauding the Arcade Savings bank of $100. He was arrested Saturday night on a warrant sworn out by Frank B. Brown from Justice Bauder's court. The affidavit says that Williams got the money by pretending that he had $100 on deposit at the Dime Savings bank and that he was authorized to sign the name of L. A. Hall & Co. to checks. The charge is that Williams made a deposit in the Arcade bank under the name of L. A. Hall & Co. and in the Dime bank in his own name and by depositing in the one bank checks on the other, worked up a fictitious credit and "did" the Arcade bank out of $100. Williams is pretty well known about town and for a time did newspaper work for an ephemeral sheet called the Times.

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES.

Approaching Annual Meeting of the Colloquial Club.

On Dit That Our Ladies' Clubs May Secure Fine Quarters This Year—Notes and Announcements.

A little bird has whispered to a Bee that fine quarters, specially fitted up for club meetings, may be arranged for in the near future. It has been with much truth complained of that Toledo is destitute of good accommodations of this kind. Inviting parlors and a small lecture hall are almost absolutely necessary for literary and social clubs, but so far this city has nothing of the kind. Something near the center of the city is desirable, not higher up than a second story, and in a locality that shall have no unpleasant surroundings. There are dozens of clubs, societies and reading circles that would avail themselves of such accommodations, and the many women's clubs of the city would be among the first. If the plans now suggested materialize, it will be because the ladies take hold of the proposition, and make a go of it, as they do of everything they undertake.

The meeting of the Women's Colloquial club in the Law kindergarten rooms, Central Congregational church, on Friday afternoon, will be one of more than common interest. It will be the annual meeting, and Mrs. Elizabeth Murray will review the year's history of the club. A discussion upon its future will then be participated in by all interested. The club meeting is from 4 to 5:30 o'clock. All women are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. S. R. L. Williams, in her monthly summary of events in woman suffrage circles, related a funny incident at the February meeting of the Toledo Suffrage association. Women have school suffrage in New Jersey. Recently in the town of Ramsey, that state, a lively fight arose about the location of a new school house. Some favored the east side and others the west side of the railroad, each division being naturally anxious to have the school where their children should not have to cross the railroad track. It happened that there were not many women at the school meeting and the west-siders finding themselves out numbered, sent in haste for their wives and sisters, getting every woman voter out and to the election, which they won. Surely those women wanted to vote, and the men were anxious to have them vote.

The time and place of meeting of the Christian alliance has been changed. The meeting will be this evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, and the place is 525 Erie street. Mrs. Josephine Marlatt will report upon the state convention of Christian alliances, recently held in Findlay.

The meeting of the Isabella Reading circle next Tuesday afternoon will be with Mrs. H. C. Cotter, 538 Western avenue. Paper by Miss Helen Nolen on "Pre-Columbian Discoveries." Mrs. Cotter's residence is three doors from Broadway, and ladies will find it most convenient to take the Broadway cars.

It is expected Prof. H. C. Adams' lecture next Friday evening in the University Extension course will be attended by many who have not taken the full course. His subject is "Trades Unions."

New York city has a ladies' political club which discusses such questions as "Tariff v. Free Trade," "The Best Municipal Government," etc., from a strictly non-partisan standpoint. The club has a phenomenal and growing membership.

THE WORD CONTEST

Has Been a Failure Financially.

Something About the Number of Words Sent In and the Manner in Which the Prize Is to be Awarded.

The Toledo Hospital word contest has been a failure financially, and the hospital will probably not make a dollar, which is very discouraging to the ladies who have worked so hard to make it a success.

Only 300 lists have been sent in, making the receipts $150, $100 of which goes to the successful contestant, and the remaining $50 will be eaten up by attendant expenses.

When the contest was conducted in St. Louis the receipts amounted to $1,500. The ladies will be unable to award the prize until after the charity ball, as they are all busy with that at present. The committee will not take upon itself the awarding of the money, but after looking over the lists submitted will turn them over to Superintendent Compton, of the public schools, and several other disinterested parties, who will render a just and impartial decision.

The longest list received contains 2,100 words. The majority contained from 1,600 to 1,900 words. Many, however, did not have over 100 or 200. A large number of the contestants sending in long lists have transgressed the rules by using words not allowed and using other dictionaries than Webster's. These, of course, will be cut out where there are more than ten errors, and it will be hard telling just what number of words will take the prize.

A BOON FOR ALL.

If you are sick and have not been helped why do you not write a full description of your case to the great specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 W. Fourteenth street, New York, known everywhere as the discoverer of Dr. Greene's Nervura, and who is without doubt the most successful physician in the cure of all long-standing complaints?

Consultation in all cases is entirely free, personally or by mail. Thousands consult him by letter, and he returns an answer to all perfectly explaining their diseases, giving advice, etc., without charge.

His success in curing diseases by his marvellous vegetable remedies is simply wonderful, and he has made a specialty of the cure of persons at a distance through letter correspondence and treatment. In this manner thousands of people have been cured and thousands more are being cured, and we should advise you, if you desire a sure cure from your disease, to immediately write him all about your case. It will cost you nothing to get his very valuable advice.

SOME TROUBLE AHEAD.

Tiffin Company to be Looked Into.

A Charge Made to the Common Council That a Scheme Is on Foot to Beat the City.

Tiffin, O., Feb. 10.—The National Machinery company of this city promises to have its hands full the coming springtime with something less satisfactory than fat orders for goods. It is the largest manufacturing establishment in Tiffin, and was created 11 years ago by a liberal donation of building site and privileges by the city.

The company was not very successful at the outset, and a receiver was appointed later. This receiver still retains nominal control, although W. R. Anderson passes as the president and manager of the concern.

The company now pays big dividends and employs 300 men. Judge J. F. Bunn of this city, last night stated to the city council that he had ascertained that the company several years ago had mortgaged their plant for a large amount, and that Anderson was continually on the lookout for a bonus from other cities to remove and leave the city in the lurch.

The city solicitor will at once institute proceedings to gain possession of the plant, but the de facto holders of the valuable property are not going to relinquish it without a bitter struggle.

THE HOTEL ROYAL.

Workmen Unable to Discover More Bodies in the Ruins.

New York, Feb. 10.—Although over 100 workmen have been digging and searching in the ruins of the burned Hotel Royal all night, no more bodies have been unearthed.

All the debris has been turned over with the exception of that at the place where the elevator shaft was, and where it is expected a number of bodies may yet be found.

DOCTORS IN TROUBLE.

Youngstown, O., Feb. 10.—Health Officer Buechner caused warrants to be issued for the arrest of Drs. J. S. Cunningham, John Deetrick, J. A. Dickson, E. M. Ilgenfritz, J. E. Cone, J. H. Adams, R. E. Whelan, and Joseph Wilson, all prominent physicians, for failing to report cases of contagious diseases. Complaints will be filed against others to-morrow.

HAND SMASHED.

Wauseon, Feb. 10.—(Special)—An employe named Carmon had his hand smashed in the wheel department of the Conklin Cultivator factory yesterday afternoon.

THE BUILDERS' EXCHANGE

Will be Formed Before Another Month Passes.

Adoption of Rules and By-Laws at Last Night's Meeting—Charter to be Applied for.

Those interested in the organization of a builders' exchange met again last night, and the necessary primative steps were all agreed upon.

Mr. A. Bentley, from the committee on rules and by-laws, reported a code which with some slight changes met with approval.

The organization will be known as the Builders' Exchange of the City of Toledo, and membership will be fixed by the following qualification:

"Any person whose avocation is connected with the trades or industries of building, as a contractor, and not a member of a journeyman's trade or labor union, may become a member of this exchange, upon the approval of the board of directors."

Annual meetings are to be held on the first day of March, at which time election of officers will take place. Semi-annual meetings are on the first day of September each year, and Wednesday of each week was fixed for regular meetings.

Charter membership fee is $25, and annual dues $12. When the charter list is closed, $50 will be the initiation fee. Nearly 200 members are already on the list, which insures the success of the enterprise.

Officers are to consist of a president, two vice presidents, secretary, treasurer and a board of 12 directors.

Mr. John C. Romeis was chosen as temporary treasurer to receive the charter fee from members, which must be paid not later than next Tuesday night.

It was decided to apply to the secretary of state for a charter, the following gentlemen to go upon the same: A. Bentley, carpentery; William J. Spear, brickwork; Michael Henahan, rubble stone; John McCaffrey, plastering; John C. Romeis, painting; Albert Neukom, cut stone; M. Donovan, iron work; E. Arnold, roofer; Casper Sacks, excavations; Emil Grah, electricity; Geo. Marquardt, furnaces; W. G. Walker, plumbing; George Schuck, builders' hardware; Fred Witker, factory work; P. T. Degnan, lime, sand, etc.

Secretary Ed Weis reported the following additions to the membership roll since last meeting:

Honorary—D. L. Stine, A. H. Liebold, W. T. States, A. E. Hitchcock.

Active—Karl Schmuhl, John J. Stone, G. F. C. Kloeppinger, Schellinger Bros., Henry Ohldhoff, Peter Budd, J. G. Voricht, Smith Bros., John Degnan, Geo. Loeb & Son, Samuel Reynolds, Gorman Bros., Orzias Blanchet, Doherty & Co., Robison & Meredith, W. T. Adams, Toledo Lumber and Manufacturing Co., A. H. Kenyon, A. Ruswinchel, Bostwick, Braun & Co., J. De Veaux, John Johns, W. J. Ritter & Co., J. M. Groenwald, R. G. Bacon & Co., F. S. Albrecht, H. E. Kuhlman & Co.

Another meeting will be held next Tuesday night, at which it is expected all preliminary arrangements will be completed and business begun in earnest.

THE SPURGEON OBSEQUIES.

Continuation of the Tabernacle Services.

The Last Message of the Departed Minister Was Characteristic of Him: Love to All Friends.

London, Feb. 10.—The coffin containing the remains of the Rev. C. H. Spurgeon rested in the same manner as yesterday, covered with floral tributes in the center of the Metropolitan tabernacle. Upon the top of the flowers was placed an open Bible, the same book so often read by the dead man within that sacred building.

Among the many floral offerings piled upon the great preacher's coffin was a wreath of roses sent by the French Baptists.

The religious services in the tabernacle to-day commenced at 11 o'clock. The building was packed with people of all classes and conditions.

The orphanage boys opened the ceremonies by singing "The Sands of Time are Sinking," after which the Rev. Mr. Pearce offered prayers for the dead. The entire assemblage then united with fervor in singing the hymn "All Hail to Thy Power."

The Rev. Dr. Angus delivered a most impressive address recalling the history of the Metropolitan Tabernacle, and of the good work done through and by it, during the course of which the speaker warmly eulogized the departed pastor.

The Rev. Dr. Pierson followed and read a letter from the widow praying that the people's faith should not fail and saying that "he is not here; he is risen," and that not for one moment would she wish him back again though dearer to her than tongue can tell.

Secretary Harrold announced that the last message of Mr. Spurgeon to his brethren of the tabernacle was: "Love to all friends."

Other speakers who have been associated with the late pastor of the tabernacle in his good work, followed in eulogies of the dead.

The next meeting in the tabernacle will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Findlay, O., Feb. 10.—(Special)—The democratic city convention will be held in the assembly room of the court house on Saturday evening, March 19th. The ward caucuses all over the city will be held on Friday evening, March 11th, for the selection of delegates. There will be a total of 174 delegates. The following ticket is to be nominated: Mayor, marshal, city solicitor, city civil engineer, one gas trustee, one water works trustee, one cemetery trustee, one justice of the peace.

Besides the usual number of members of city council and school board in the different wards.

The following officers have been selected to preside: Chairman, Hon. D. Joy; vice chairmen, Thomas Delaney, S. L. McKelvey, E. J. Beebe, R. D. Wright, R. H. Allum; secretary, Fred H. Gessner; assistant secretary, C. W. Bente.

May Festival.

A permanent musical festival society has been organized in this city, and the following officers elected: President, Dr. M. M. Lown; vice-president, Mrs. Geo. P. Jones; secretary, Prof. J. W. Zeller; treasurer, Prof. A. C. Redding. The society contains the best musical talent in the city, and will give the two grand oratories, the "Creation" and the "Messiah" in May.

Shooting Match.

An interesting sporting event occurred this afternoon in the fifty-bird match for $50 a side, between Dr. Drake and Albert Karg, the two crack shots in the city, after which the gun club held their regular shoot. The club will hold its annual election and banquet at the Sherman house this evening.

A Sensational Suit.

The suit for damages for $10,000 from Clifford & Yossman, the proprietors of the Royal Cafe, began by Mrs. Charlotte F. Carlin, the wife of a prominent citizen, is on the calendar to be commenced in common pleas court. She claims in her petition her husband lost this amount on the gaming tables in their establishments. Wide interest is shown in the outcome of this suit.

A Great Well.

The gas well drilled in by the Witherald Rolling mill a few days ago is a genuine boomer and one of the best wells ever drilled in this vicinity. The capacity is said to be at least 5,000,000 cubic feet per day. The well is located near the mill property and about one mile from the center of the city.

JAPAN'S UNIVERSITY GRADUATES

Japan appears to be turning out her university graduates at a faster rate than employment can be found for them. A Japanese contemporary states that many of this year's Imperial university graduates have as yet been unable to find employment, and says this state of things is gradually assuming a serious aspect. It would appear that the advancement made by the country in learning has not been accompanied by corresponding strides in commerce or the remunerative professions, and until this is remedied Japan must expect to find the present discouraging state of affairs assailing her young graduates in starting out in their struggle for existence.—New York Recorder.

TAKING A SPECIAL PARTNER.

Down at the office, he acted as though
He had left his head uptown;
When he signs a check he doesn't know
That his name is Roger Brown.
He makes false entries upon the books,
And scratches with all his might,
While the clerks regard him with merry looks—
For "He's to be married to-night!"

With sublime unconsciousness he fills
The waste-paper basket with stocks,
And carefully lays the unpaid bills,
In the Safe Deposit box.
He writes a letter; and spills the ink,
And gets in a woeful plight;
And the office boy says with a knowing wink—
"He's goan ter get married ter-night!"

TIME-SENSE.

Is It One of the Attributes of Dumb Animals?

Of the nearness of animals to men, E. P. Evans, in an article on this subject in the February Atlantic, says:

There is no reason to believe that "time-sense," which Prantl claims to be the exclusive attribute of man, and from which he derives the superior mental evolution and equipment of the human race, is wholly lacking in the lower animals. Every creature endowed with personal consciousness and memory must know that it is the same being to-day that it was yesterday, or, in other words, that it exists in time. The possession of this knowledge does not imply the possibility of indulging in philosophical reflections about it any more than the possession of thoughts, although it would be rash to affirm that animals may not be capable of giving themselves up to meditation by recalling mental impressions and making them objects of thought.

Time-sense is very highly developed in domestic fowls and many wild birds, as well as in dogs, horses and other mammals, which keep an accurate account of days of the week and hours of the day, and have, at least, a limited idea of numerical succession and logical sequence. A Polish artist, residing in Rome, had an exceedingly intelligent and faithful terrier, which, as he was obliged to go on a journey, he left with a friend, to whom the dog was strongly attached. Day and night the terrier went to the station to meet every train, carefully observing and remembering the time of their arrival, and never missing one. Meanwhile he became so depressed that he refused to eat, and would have died of starvation, if the friend had not telegraphed to his master to return at once if he wished to find the animal alive. Here we have a striking exhibition of time-sense as well as an example of all-absorbing affection and self-renunciation likely to result in suicide.

Love, gratitude, devotion, the sense of duty, and the spirit of self-sacrifice are proverbially strong in dogs, and only a "hard-shell" metaphysician, who neither knows nor cares anything about them, would venture to deny them all moral qualities, and to assert that they are governed solely by a regard for their own individual well-being. There are also many apparently well-authenticated instances of animals deliberately taking their own lives; and without too credulously accepting anecdotes of this sort, in which it is difficult to determine whether the creature was a felo-de-se or the victim of an accident, there is no psychological reason for rejecting them as old-wives' fables.

People who use arsenical preparations for their complexion, do so at the risk of their lives. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is guaranteed free from any injurious drug, and is, therefore, the safest as well as the most powerful blood medicine in the world. It makes the skin clear.

There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is a second stage of seminal weakness. We will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.—We have a special department, thoroughly organized, and devoted exclusively to the treatment of diseases of women. Every case consulting our specialists, whether by letter or in person, is given the most careful and considerate attention. Important cases (and we get few which have not baffled the skill of all the home physicians) have the benefit of a full council of skilled specialists. In treatment of diseases peculiar to females, our success has been marked, over two-thirds of our patients being ladies, old, young, married, single, rich and poor. Our method is entirely free from objectionable features of the general practitioner, namely, "Local treatment." We seldom find it necessary. We prepare remedies, constitutional and local, as the case demands, and instruct ladies how to treat themselves.

MARRIAGE.—Married persons, or young men contemplating marriage, aware of physical weakness, loss of procreative powers, impotency, or any other disqualification, speedily restored.

PRIVATE DISEASES.—Blood Poison, Venereal Taint, Gleet, Stricture, Seminal Emissions, Loss of Sexual Power, Weakness of Sexual Organs, Want of Desire in Male or Female, whether from imprudent habits of youth or sexual habits of mature years, or any cause that debilitates the sexual functions, speedily and permanently cured. Consultation free and strictly confidential. Absolute cures guaranteed. Medicines sent free from observation to all parts of the United States.

EPILEPSY, OR FITS—Positively cured by a new and never-failing method. Testimonials furnished.

FREE EXAMINATION OF THE URINE.—Each person applying for medical treatment should send or bring from 2 to 4 ounces of urine (that passed first in the morning preferred), which will receive a careful chemical and microscopical examination, and if requested a written analysis will be given.

Persons ruined in health by unlearned pretenders, who keep trifling with them month after month, giving poisonous and injurious compounds, should apply immediately. Delays are dangerous.

WONDERFUL CURES Perfected in old cases which have been neglected or unskillfully treated. No experiments or failures. Parties treated by mail or express, but where possible, personal consultation is preferred. Curable cases guaranteed. No risks incurred.

☞ Cases and correspondence confidential. Treatment sent C. O. D. to any part of U. S. List of 130 questions free. Address, with postage, DR. FRANCE, Nos. 38 and 40 W. Gay St., Columbus, O.

M., the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway will, until April 30, sell at very low rates round trip excursion tickets having a transit limit of 30 days in that direction, with a final limit to return until June 1, 1892, being good to stop off at all stations in the state of Texas within the transit limit of the ticket.

This road will also sell at greatly reduced rates round trip excursion tickets to California and Mexican points, limited to six months from date of sale, granting stop-overs both going and returning.

Special agents and porters in attendance. Pullman tourist sleepers are used, furnished with bedding, mattresses, toilet articles, etc. Second-class tickets honored. Write to Geo. E. Gilman, Michigan Passenger Agent Santa Fe route, for folder describing these excursions.

A TRUTH FROM "TRUTH."

The New York Central is really first-class in all its appointments. Think of it, it has four tracks laid with the heaviest of steel rails in the most substantial manner, and when you are sleeping or lounging around in one of their superb Wagner cars, and flying along at the rate of nearly a mile a minute, as some of their fast expresses do, you will hardly realize that you are moving, so excellent is the permanent way. A short time ago a special train made the run from New York to Buffalo at the rate of a mile a minute the entire distance.
